General Intercession

For grace and courage to respond with patience and honesty to an angry child or sulking spouse. Let us pray to the Lord.

Family Perspectives

Today's gospel is about choices. We have the choice to sow or not to sow the seeds of religious values in our homes. Our children have the choice of accepting or rejecting these values. The gospel is clear: parents must actively sow the seeds of faith in their children knowing that the only way to reap a bountiful harvest is to sow the seeds of faith and nurture it. Aren't our children worth it?

From the Pastor's Desk

This weekend marks The Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time. Yet never is a weekend, let alone a Sunday, ordinary. Every aspect of time itself is a gift. It is all part of God's wonderful plan of salvation history. He sends forth His word to bring forth a bountiful harvest of goodness and the fullness of life for those who respond to His grace.

*You have visited the land and watered it;
greatly have you enriched it.
God's watercourses are filled;
you have prepared the grain.*

*Thus have you prepared the land;
drenching its furrows, breaking up its clods,
Softening it with showers,
blessing its yield.*

*You have crowned the year with your bounty,
and your paths overflow with a rich harvest;
the untilled meadows overflow with it,
and rejoicing clothes the hills.*

*The fields are garmented with flocks
and the valleys blanketed with grain.
They shout and sing for joy.*

Psalm 65:10, 11, 12-13, 14

What is needed are ears open to the seed of God's word of grace. The challenges found in the time of Jesus are same for us. It may be a different time and our civilization far different from that of centuries past but our humanity is still the same, we may be excited by the Gospel but soon the excitement gives way, troubles come, temptation find their way into our lives and deafness occurs...Lord have mercy!

In your prayers...

Celia Bican, George and Dee Blower, Dolores Bryan, Johannah Conner, Anne Davis, Mary Fiorentini, Tom Gardner, James Ging, Tayha Hostetler, Bob and Kathy James, Carol Leach, Marca Kaplar, Margaret, Megan, Ashley Munoz, George Novak, Walter Przybojewski, Joy Rogers, Joseph and Dorothy Rogus, Andrew Sanford, Theresa "Tess" Slenn, Bruce Styles, Marla Sliwinski, Phyllis Todd, Sylvia Trecaso, and all in need of prayer...

*O Mary help of the sick, pray for us!
St. Joseph, St. Anthony, pray for us!*

Intergenerational Service Experiences

Bring yourself, your family, church group, or group of friends to Villa Maria for the July 10-14 or July 31-August 3 Intergenerational Service Experiences. We will plan your service projects, offer meaningful service reflection activities for all ages, plan prayer services, provide your meals, give you a clean and comfortable place to sleep, and leave plenty of time to explore the sites of our beautiful and historic area. More and more individuals are choosing to spend some of their vacation time helping others, and they are finding that their experiences bring them closer together and change them forever. You will join other groups for service work during the day and close each day with a meaningful and engaging reflection activity prepared by our staff, a staff with outstanding intergenerational and family ministry training and experience. Please contact Natalie Terry at VMESCservice@humilityofmary.org or 724-964-8920 x3087 for additional information!

Seeds of Literacy

A nonprofit organization offering free, one-to-one tutoring in basic adult education and GED preparation, has an urgent need for more tutors. We are the only nationally accredited adult literacy provider in Cuyahoga County. Tutors work individually with students on reading, writing, and math skills, offer encouragement and support, and help students develop confidence and positive attitudes about learning.

Please attend one of our upcoming tutor training sessions:
Saturday, July 16th from 9am to 2pm
Saturday, August 20th from 9am and 2pm
Saturday, September 10th from 9am to 2pm
