From the Pastor's Desk

In the Gospel of this 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time it might seem a simple question requiring but a simple answer, however, the Lord's response to someone who wished to justify themselves opens the door to much deeper understanding as to our obligation for one another. The parable that Jesus uses as an answer to the scholar of the law question as to "who is my neighbor?" must also be food for thought for all seeking eternal life by following the Commandments.

Each day provides a memory of a yesterday. As I mark another year of life on Wednesday, July 14 (sixty-three, thank the Lord), I remember the day that follows, July 15 and it is the fifth anniversary of the death of our pastor emeritus, The Reverend Father Robert W. Donohoe, who served the Parish as pastor from 1980 – 1995. Next Sunday's 8:30 morning Mass will be offered for Father Donohoe and you are invited to fellowship and to share memories after the Mass. Do take some time after Mass to be with fellow parishioners and enjoy remembering, good company, and old fashion bakery and coffee.

Next weekend our parish will welcome the Augustinian Friars of the Province of St. Thomas Villanova who will speak about their missions in South Africa, Peru and Japan.

Remember to complete your pledge for this years Catholic Charities Campaign... Thank you to all who have donated. May reward your generosity!

General Intercessions

May we notice and support our neighbors in need, especially those experiencing the distress of divorce. Let us pray to the Lord.

Family Perspective

Today's readings challenge us to think about who our neighbor is. This includes the lonely person next door and the elderly widow down the street. But it also includes the demanding child, the rebellious teenager, the withdrawn spouse or the difficult in-law. Let's include those with whom we live and are related as "neighbors." Treat them with the "Gospel Good Neighbor Policy" of unconditional love, forgiveness and compassion and watch the results!

In your prayers...

Celia Bican, George and Dee Blower, Dolores Bryan, Johannah Conner, Maureen Hurrle, Bob and Kathy James, Margaret, Marilyn M., Jolene Maurer, Dice Moledor, Ashley Munoz, George Novak, Lucille Novak, Walter Przybojewski, Joy Rogers, Joseph and Dorothy Rogus, Andrew Sanford, Bruce Styles, Chic Tesmer, Sylvia Trecaso and all who have asked for prayer...

O Mary help of the sick, pray for us!

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Who is my neighbor?"

Luke 10:29

Prayer of the Month

Lord and Ruler of all, we pray for the elections that will be held throughout the world this year. May governments recognize the right of their people to choose their leaders in fair and free elections. May all people find and courageously hold to values that lead them to vote for honest candidates who seek the common good rather than appeal to selfish interests. Amen.

Volunteers needed at Ozanam Center

Because it is summer and lots of our regular volunteers are on vacation or busy with family we have gotten way behind in sorting the donated clothing. If you can't come to the Center on Saturday we could use your help during the week to try to catch up on the sorting. If you would be available any day during the week, please call Cathie or Jim Perusek at 330-467-5762 and let us know. We could really use your assistance!

Share Your Views on Volunteerism

If you are 40 years of age or older, the Catholic Network of Volunteer Service wants to hear from you. CNVS is a national membership organization of Christian Volunteer and mission programs that fosters and promotes full-time national and international service opportunities. Participate in a brief online survey, and you can help volunteers like yourself find more opportunities that match their interests. Parishes across the country are participating. CNVS will treat the parish with the most survey participants to a day of complimentary coffee and refreshments following Sunday Masses. Take the survey today at www.cnvs.org/survey.

Faith and Family Festival: Saturday July 24th
