From the Pastor's Desk

On this 18th Sunday in Ordinary Time we can ask ourselves the question is bigger better! The Gospel reading seems to say not, that what is need is a generous heart and more care for others instead of self. How are our energies, time and talent used? Are the things we do and what we hold as important, leading to heaven? How are we living...is it the way, the truth to eternal life of what began in baptism...or are we foolish like the rich man in the gospel who thought bigger is better yet?

Thank you and blessings from Bishop Prasad! He truly appreciated his visit with us and is looking forward to returning next summer. Bishop Prasad also thanks Mother of Sorrows parishioners for their wonderful hospitality and generosity. We may never get to India, but our prayers and kindness have touched many there!

Congratulations to our student missionaries, Mary Kate Gladstone, Elaine Godic, and Margaret Joyce who spent some of their summer holiday in our El Salvador. Thank you for your witness of faith and the example you have given to each of us at the parish!

General Intercessions

That families may meet their material needs without being trapped by the cares and vain pursuit of more and more possessions. We pray to the Lord.

Family Perspective

In today's gospel Jesus tells us: "One's life does not consist in the abundance of possessions." When we spend too much time working to obtain more stuff we don't have time for the people in our lives. What is "enough"? Are the words of Jesus, "You fool", meant for us?

In your prayers...

Celia Bican, George and Dee Blower, Dolores Bryan, Johannah Conner, Maureen Hurrle, Bob and Kathy James, Margaret, Marilyn M., Jolene Maurer, Dice Moledor, Ashley Munoz, George Novak, Lucille Novak, Walter Przybojewski, Joy Rogers, Joseph and Dorothy Rogus, Andrew Sanford, Bruce Styles, Chic Tesmer, Phyliss Tretodd, Sylvia Trecaso, Marla Wolinski and all who have asked for prayer...

O Mary help of the sick, pray for us!
