

"Come and See"

Father Joseph Mamich, Parochial Vicar of Holy Church in Stow, will speak on the topic, "What Catholics Should Know about Death and Life after Death" at the next gathering, Tuesday, March 2, 7:00 p.m., at Blessed Trinity Parish (formerly St. Martha). If you would like, join us for small group discussion following Fr. Joe's presentation. A representative from the Diocesan Tribunal will be on hand to offer assistance with specific annulment and remarriage questions. Everyone is welcome!

These monthly gatherings, sponsored by the Catholic parishes of the Summit District of the Diocese of Cleveland, are intended for those who have questions or concerns about the Catholic faith or for anyone who simply wants to grow in faith and be able to discuss Catholicism with others in a knowledgeable way. There is no cost and reservations are not required. For more information or to obtain a brochure, please contact: Patricia Flaherty 330-773-7621 or email pflaherty@dioceseofcleveland.org

Needed: Literacy Tutors to Help Break the Cycle of Poverty

Poverty is linked to illiteracy, and you can help break that link.

Volunteer as a tutor for Seeds of Literacy, a nonprofit organization providing free, one-to-one-tutoring in basic education and GED preparation to adults in Cuyahoga County.

Last year, a roster of nearly 200 volunteers assisted 1,000 students. Tutors work individually with students on reading, writing and math skills, offer encouragement and support, and help students develop confidence and positive attitudes about learning.

All tutors are required to attend one tutor training session; no teaching experience is necessary. More than half of the Seeds of Literacy tutors have been volunteering for more than 5 years.

Once training is complete, tutors make a time commitment of one tutoring session per week for one year. Each tutoring session lasts 2 hours, and may be scheduled during the day or evening, depending on personal preference.

The next tutor training session is scheduled for:

Saturday March 27th, 2010 9:00 am - 2:00 pm
Seeds Resource Center 3104 West 25th Street, 3rd floor
(corner of West 25th and Clark). Contact Linda Worthington at lindaworthington@seedsofliteracy.org or 216.661.7950.
