Choose Life...

A veteran researcher into post-abortion trauma, David Reardon, writes that some abortionists readily admit feelings of guilt. "I do feel you're an abnormal person if you could really honestly say that abortion didn't bother you at all," said one abortionist he interviewed. "It goes against all things which are natural. It's a termination of life, however you look at it."

Prayer to St. Michael

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

COMPREHENSIVE IMMIGRATION REFORM

The Welcoming the Stranger Committee is grateful to the many parishes and individuals in the Diocese who responded to the United States Bishops' request to sign postcards advocating that Congress take up Comprehensive Immigration Reform (CIR). Close to 15,000 signed postcards (approximately 15% of those distributed) were delivered to the local offices of our U.S. Senators and Representatives during April, urging them to enact legislation that keeps immigrant families together, adopts smart and humane enforcement policies, and ensures that immigrants without legal status register with the government and begin a path toward citizenship.

Many more postcards were also sent electronically to Congressional representatives. It's not too late to send an electronic postcard to Congress, and read more information on the Church's position in favor of Comprehensive Immigration Reform. Please go to the JFI web site, www.justiceforimmigrants.org.

Bishop John C. Wester, Bishop of Salt Lake City, Utah and chairman of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' Committee on Migration was interviewed for an article, which appeared in the 16 May 2010 issue of Our Sunday Visitor. The article is answers to tough questions about the Church's position on immigration. Find the article reproduced: www.justiceforimmigrants.org. The article is listed in the right column on the home page under the title: From Our Sunday Visitor: Answering Tough Questions About Immigration.
