From the Pastor's Desk

"Peace be with you!" (John 20:19) with these words our Lord greets us and the disciples this Second Sunday of Easter – Divine Mercy Sunday. The disciples feared for their lives and the doors where they were locked, but locked doors could not keep the Lord from them. In the same way, despite the challenges of life or our busyness the Lord is in our midst to offer "peace". The peace the world cannot give. Like Thomas in today's gospel account, we may have difficulty at first believing because the disciples around us tell us the Lord is risen, but their witness to a new life in the Lord still expresses fear and doubt. Yet the Lord has breathed His Spirit on us all and given us the gift of faith. We must stay connected and support one another. Last week many gathered to celebrate not history but "mystery" intersecting the history of lives and the lives of all throughout the history of salvation. With Thomas this week to our alleluia we add "my Lord and my God!"

General Intercessions

That parents will courageously not tolerate any violence in their homes, we pray to the Lord.

Family Perspective

"As the Father has sent Me, so I send you!" As Jesus gives witness to God's love and forgiveness, each of us is called to live this same mission. Parents and spouses have the opportunity to give witness to the faithful love of God for each other. They do this in the ways they hold each other accountable to live the Gospel and in the times they mercifully forgive and reconcile.

Emma Aguilar and Family, Richard Bennett, Celia Bican, George and Dee Blower, Dolores Bryan, Johannah Conner, Robert Haas, Maureen Hurrle, Kathy James, Louis Lazar, Margaret, Melissa, Jolene Maurer, Dice Moledor, Marilyn M., Ashley Munoz, George Novak, Walter Przybojewski, Joy Rogers, Joseph Rogus, Andrew Sanford, Patricia Sayer, John Stewart, Bruce Styles, Chic Tesmer, Sylvia Trecaso, Marilyn Wotowiec,. Let us pray . . .

All powerful and ever-living God, the lasting health of all who believe in you hear us as we ask for your loving help for the sick; restore their health, that they may again offer joyful thanks in your Church. Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
