Family Perspectives

Today's gospel calls fathers to be men of faith and hope. The gospel speaks of "the smallest of all seeds which grows and become the greatest of shrubs". Our seemingly insignificant acts can have a tremendous effect upon our children. Our smallest acts of love, attention and approval, or the moments of time spent together, are acts of faith and hope. Faith, because we show our belief and confidence in our children; hope, because we will not see the results of our parenting for many years.

General Intercession

Today on this Father's Day, we pray that all fathers might be instruments of God's healing presence to their families and to the world. We pray to the Lord.

From the Pastor's Desk

On this 11th Sunday in Ordinary time we are reminded to walk by faith (2nd Corinthians 5:6-10). This weekend as we observe also a day dedicated to honoring Fathers, let us pray that we with them will respond to the gift of faith so that all we do, will be an example of true virtue to encourage and inspire our children to also walk in the light of the Gospel as disciples, witnesses to Christ the Lord.

*O God, strength of those who hope in you,
Graciously hear our pleas,
And, since without You mortal frailty can do nothing,
Grant us always the help of Your grace,
That in following Your commands
We may please You by our resolve and our deeds.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son,
Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
One God for ever and ever.
Amen.*
