Family Perspectives

In today's gospel Jesus teaches us that only by eating His Flesh and drinking His Blood will we live. Parents are called to similar sacrifice. If you feel that your children are consuming your every minute, realize that this is the sacred vocation of parents – to give their lives to their children so that they may live. Parenting is not part-time; it is a total commitment.

General Intercession

For all those families that grieve the loss of a loved one, that the promise of eternal life in today's gospel might lessen the burden of their sorrow, we pray to the Lord.

From the Pastor's Desk

On this Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time may we pray for wisdom and discernment to deepen our understanding of Jesus as the Bread of Life. As we continue reflecting on the passages from the 6th chapter of the Gospel according to St. John the Evangelist may we recognize Jesus as the Wisdom of God incarnate, made flesh. In Him we receive the food and drink for eternal life. Amen.

*O God, Who have prepared for those who love You
Good things which no eye can see,
Fill our hearts, we pray, with the warmth of Your love,
So that, loving You in all things and above all things,
We may attain Your promises,
which surpass every human desire.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son,
Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
One God for ever and ever.
Amen.*

Saints this Week

On Monday, the Church brings us St. Bernard of Clairvaux, an Abbot and great teacher of the Faith. Tuesday, we remember Guiseppa Sarto, born in the village of Riese in the province of Venice in the year 1835. Elected to the papacy in 1903 and we now know him as St. Pius X. He desired to "restore all things in Christ" and he made it possible for children to receive Holy Communion at an early age (when they attain the use of reason). Thursday is the feast of St. Bartholomew, an apostle, born in Cana of Galilee, and is he said to have preached the Gospel in India where he was martyred.

In Your Charity

Please remember Nellie Gray, Founder and President of the March for Life, in your prayers. May Nellie and all our beloved dead live forever in the joy of the Resurrection and may their families and friends be granted consolation.
Amen.

In your prayers...
