From the Pastor's Desk

On this Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time we are reminded that following Jesus is about making choices. God chooses us. He gives us the gift of Faith. Most of us were baptized as infants because of our parents' choice to share the faith. We are to grow in the faith and respond to the grace given us at Baptism. Our choices will reflect how truly we follow Jesus.

*O God, Who cause the minds of the faithful
To unite in a single purpose,
Grant Your people to love what You command
And to desire what You promise,
That, amid the uncertainties of the world,
Our hearts may be fixed on that place
Where true gladness is found.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son,
Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
One God for ever and ever.
Amen.*

*Collect of the 20th Sunday in Ordinary Time
The Roman Missal, 3rd Edition*

Parish School of Religion

Parish Families, please to fill out the Parish School of Religion form. List all the children and the schools they are attending (including those in catholic schools, high schools, college, universities, and those not yet of school age). You may place the forms in the Sunday Collection by next weekend, September 1-2. Thank You!

Family Perspectives

In today's gospel some followers complained that what Jesus taught was too difficult to follow – but Jesus did not back off. As adults, it is our obligation to clearly teach Christian values to our children. We can expect resistance; often the Christian lifestyle is contrary to our culture. Like Jesus, don't back away!

General Intercession

For all working parents, that they may find a proper balance between the demands of their work and the needs of their children, we pray to the Lord

In your prayers...
