From the Pastor's Desk

On this Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time we are told "to conduct our affairs with humility" (Sirach 3:17). In the parable in the Sunday Gospel Jesus further teaches us that "...everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted" (Luke 14:14). Our response to the advice found in the Book of Sirach and the teaching Jesus gives will determine our place at the heavenly banquet. Let us pray...

God of might, giver of every good gift,
put into our hearts the love of Your name,
so that, by deepening our sense
of reverence,

You may nurture in us what is good
and, by Your watchful care,
keep safe what You have nurtured.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son,
who lives and reigns with You in the unity
of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

September 1, 2013
22nd Sunday of Ordinary Time

"Rather, when you are invited, go and take the lowest place so that when the host comes to you he may say, 'My friend, move up to a higher position.' "

Luke 14:10

Luke 14:1,7-14

"God in your goodness, You have made a home for the poor."
(Psalm 68)

- In what way do you live the Spirit of humility? How do you know you are being humble?
- Jesus is very observant at the home of a leading Pharisee and takes advantage of a teachable moment. What have been some teachable moments in your life?
- How welcoming are you to those society rejects?

What is Catholic teaching on labor and capitalism?

Catholic teaching on Labor developed in the 19th century with the industrial revolution. Owners of industry primarily profited, while laborers sank into poverty. The Church's view on capitalism concerns the common good and the system should not become a mere means for individuals to make profits. The Church supports a free-market system which is at the service of man, prevents monopolies, and ensures that all are supplied with employment and vitally necessary goods. Apostolic Prayers for September 2013

General Intention: Value of Silence.

That people today, often overwhelmed by noise, may rediscover the value of silence and listen to the voice of God and their brothers and sisters.

Missionary Intention: Persecuted Christians.

That Christians suffering persecution in many parts of the world may by their witness be prophets of Christ's love.

Amen.

Prayer to Our Lady of Sorrows

O most holy virgin, mother of our Lord Jesus Christ: by the overwhelming grief you experienced when you witnessed the martyrdom, the crucifixion, and the death of your divine Son, look upon me with eyes of compassion and awaken in my heart a tender commiseration for those sufferings, as well as a sincere detestation of my sins, in order that, being disengaged from all undue affections for the passing joys of this earth, I may long for the eternal Jerusalem, and that henceforth all my thoughts and all my actions may be directed toward this one most desirable object. Honor, glory, and love to our divine Lord Jesus, and to the holy and immaculate mother of God. Amen.
