From the Pastor's Desk

The Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time affords us the opportunity to see what we might consider small truly making its mark. Take for example gift of faith that God has given to each and every person. It may seem to be insufficient for our life's journey. Like the apostles, we might ask for more faith. Perhaps we should first trust that what the Lord has already freely given is more than enough and then see what will happen. Let us pray...

*Almighty ever-living God, who in the abundance of your kindness surpass the merits and the desires of those who entreat you,
pour out your mercy upon us
to pardon what conscience dreads and to give what prayer does not dare to ask.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity
of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.*

Amen.

October 6, 2013
27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you."

Luke 17:6

YEAR OF FAITH 2012-2013

Luke 17: 5-10

"If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts." (Ps. 95:8)

- Have you ever asked for an increase in faith? If so, what happened? If not, why not?

- What or who helps you to protect and nurture the faith you do have?

- How or when have you helped to increase or support the faith of another?

Why can there be only one Church?

Just as there is only one Christ, there can be only one Church of Jesus Christ. He is the Head, the Church is the Body. Jesus built his Church, which subsists in the Catholic Church, on the foundation of the Apostles. This foundation supports her to this day. The faith of the Apostles was handed down from generation to generation under the leadership of the Pope. An early Church Father, St. Irenaeus of Lyons wrote, "For with this Church, by reason of its preeminence...the faithful everywhere must necessarily be in accord, because in it the tradition of the apostles has always been preserved." (From the Youth Catechism of the Catholic Church) (Youcat #129)
