From the Pastor's Desk

In the scriptures of this 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time we are given the opportunity to pray above all else for wisdom. In addition, as we listen to the Gospel why not ask ourselves as we enter this "Year of Faith" how are we seeking the way of perfection? How does our lifestyle reflect the right kind of attachment...a life lived in Jesus...truly being his disciples today? What impedes us in fulfilling our vocation in Christ?

*May Your grace, O Lord, we pray,
 At all times go before us and follow after
 And make us always determined
 To carry out good works.
 Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son,
 Who lives and reigns with you in the unity
 Of the Holy Spirit,
 One God, for ever and ever.
 Amen.*

Family Perspectives

The rich young man in the Gospel knew what he had to do, but he was locked into his "stuff." His possessions consumed him and blocked him from truly following God. We live in a consumer society. Who or what is really consumed? Today's Gospel warns us not to be locked into chasing more and better "stuff" while neglecting God's goals for us.

General Intercession

That all children will grow to understand the abiding presence of God in their lives through their parents' love, wisdom and guidance, let us pray to the Lord.

Wedding Banns

III Jessica Marchetti and Eric Neff

III Ashley Bauman and Joshua Tucker

Religious Freedom

On Saturday, October 20, there will be religious freedom rallies in many cities throughout our great country. A local Stand Up for Religious Freedom Rally will take place at 12 noon at the Southwest Quadrant on Public Square in Downtown Cleveland. Mandated health care policies are challenging religious freedom by trying to force religious institutions to violate faith values and moral beliefs. The HHS Mandate imposes crippling fines on our Catholic charities, hospitals, and schools if they refuse to violate core Catholic beliefs. In fact, all businesses and organizations must also comply with the mandate. For more information, please call Molly at 216-661-3000 x 11 or visit www.standupforreligiousfreedom.com.

Priesthood Sunday

October 28 is set aside as Priesthood Sunday. On that day we will celebrate the importance of the gift of the priesthood and pray for more priestly vocations. It is also an opportunity for us to reflect on the ministry that priests share with us when we gather at the Table of the Lord and as they serve us as ministers of the sacraments, of the Word, and so many other pastoral ways. For information on the priesthood vocation visit www.clevelandcatholicpriesthood.com.

United with the Catholics of the world at the Table of the Lord, we recommit ourselves to our vocation, through Baptism, to be missionaries. Our prayers and Eucharistic celebration next Sunday are directed in a special way toward our brothers and sisters throughout the world who are waiting to hear the joyous “Good News” of Jesus. Through financial gifts, offered in next week’s collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, we become partners with missionaries who proclaim the Gospel and offer help and hope to the poor in mission countries. May God reward your continuous generosity!
