From the Pastor's Desk

In the scriptures of this 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time we are given the opportunity to reflect upon service and selflessness as the road to heaven. Our Lord Jesus was willing to be the servant of all, to bear our infirmities, to carry our guilt though innocent, to be brought low in order that we might be raised with Him to glory. The way to heaven and greatness even now is through service and being true servants of the Lord and to each and every person.

*Almighty ever-living God,
Grant that we may always conform our will to Yours
And serve Your majesty in sincerity of heart.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son,
Who lives and reigns with you in the unity
Of the Holy Spirit,
One God, for ever and ever.
Amen.*

*Collect of the 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time
The Roman Missal, 3rd Edition*

Family Perspectives

Today's Gospel says that anyone who aspires to greatness must become a servant to others. God's servants do not try to manipulate or control; their main concern is what is in the best interests of those they serve. Like Jesus, a good Christian parent or spouse comes, not to be served, but to serve and to give one's life for others.

General Intercession

*For caregivers, that they will be blessed with patience, warmth, kindness, strength and gentleness, always mindful of the dignity of those entrusted to their care,
let us pray to the Lord.*

Priesthood Sunday

Next Sunday is Priesthood Sunday. We will celebrate on October 28th weekend the importance of the gift of the priesthood and pray for more priestly vocations. It is also an opportunity for us to reflect on the ministry that priests share with us when we gather at the Table of the Lord and as they serve us as ministers of the sacraments, of the Word, and so many other pastoral ways. More on the priesthood: www.clevelandcatholicpriesthood.com.

WARM THANKS

Last weekend's collection for the Diocesan St. Vincent de Paul Blanket Sunday collection totaled $467.00. Many needy families and individuals will receive warm blankets, essential bedding and other items for the winter months through our Ozanam Centers, Catholic Charities agencies, and the parish groups in our own metropolitan area. A warm and sincere thank you for assisting through donations and prayers!

We are called to this Eucharistic celebration – along with Catholics everywhere throughout the world – to fulfill the call we first heard at Baptism, the call to be missionaries, to share our faith. On World Mission Sunday, we are called in a special way to be “missionaries of faith through prayer and participation in the Eucharist, and by sharing generously in today's collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. Let us pray especially at this Mass for all who long to hear the hope-filled, saving message of Jesus, and for the priest, religious, and lay catechists in mission countries worldwide who offer them that “Good News.”
