General Intercession

For parents and spouses, that they will learn to be agents of forgiveness in their family, so that the peace of Christ will be present in their home, we pray to the Lord.

Family Perspectives

Disagreements are normal in family life. That is why forgiveness also needs to be routine in our families. The problem is that many families are good at disagreeing but not skilled at reconciling. Like the disciples in the gospel we hide behind locked doors out of fear that we may lose face or be seen as wrong or weak. As long as we allow our fear to rule our actions, we will never experience the peace that Jesus promises in today's gospel.

From the Pastor's Desk

"Peace be with you." With these words the Lord greeted the apostles on that first Easter Sunday. We believe and rejoice with the apostles in the peace the Lord offers us despite our fears and weaknesses. As we have made a renewal of our Baptismal Promises on Easter Sunday, may we keep that commitment before us as we journey in prayer and faith together during this great season of Easter.

God of everlasting mercy,

Who in the very recurrence of the paschal feast kindle the faith of the people You have made your own, increase, we pray, the grace You have bestowed, that all may grasp and rightly understand in what font they have been washed, by whose Spirit they have been reborn, by whose Blood they have been redeemed.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, One God, for ever and ever.

Amen.
