General Intercession

For families that grieve the loss of a loved one, that they might find peace in the promise of eternal life and be consoled by the memory of loving times spent together.
Let us pray to the Lord.

Family Perspectives

The widow in today's gospel gave everything she had. She didn't hold back, she trusted that God would care for her. In our homes we are called to imitate the widow and invest totally in one another, paying with the coins of generous love and empowering trust.

From the Pastor's Desk

This 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time we can consider, with the example of the widow's generosity in today's Gospel before us, where our sharing with the Lord or others is from. Is it only from our surplus or is it a true gift given with humility and unreserved generosity?

*Almighty and merciful God,
 Graciously keep from us all adversity,
 So that, unhindered in mind and body alike,
 We may pursue in freedom of heart
 The things that are Yours.
 Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son,
 Who lives and reigns with You in the unity
 Of the Holy Spirit,
 One God, for ever and ever.
 Amen.*

Children's Grief Awareness Day

You and your family are invited to visit your participating local Catholic Cemetery on November 15 for a day of remembrance and reflection. Observed every year on the third Thursday of November (which is also the Thursday before Thanksgiving), Children's Grief Awareness Day reminds us that grieving children are not alone. This time of year can be particularly difficult after the death of a loved one. Help us make sure that these children receive the support they need. We welcome you to stop in the office at your participating Catholic Cemetery on November 15 to pick up a special gift to give to a grieving child in your life. Please visit www.clevelandcatholiccemeteries.org for more information or contact Nancy Romaine at nromaine@clevelandcatholiccemeteries.org.

The remaining service this year 2012 is December 9.

Special Collections

This weekend's second collection is taken up to assist those most in need because of the devastation resulting from Hurricane Sandy. Checks may be made out to Mother of Sorrows with "Hurricane Sandy Relief" notated in the memo.

Next weekend's (November 17-18) collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) was established to end the cycle of poverty in America by funding organizations that help individuals help themselves. With the tradition of improving education, housing situations, and economic development, CCHD continues a positive impact in communities nationwide.
