This Thirty Second Sunday in Ordinary Time again affords us the opportunity to pray and reflect on our Faith and the belief we have in life after death. We began the month of November with the Solemnity of All Saints Day and on November 2nd prayed for All the Faithful Departed. As the promise of eternal life fills us with hope, may it also remind us to live graced filled lives that demonstrate Heaven is our true home. Let us pray...

*Almighty and merciful God,
graciously keep from us all adversity,
so that, unhindered in mind and
body alike,
we may pursue in freedom of heart
the things that are Yours.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son,
who lives and reigns with You in the unity
of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.*

Roman Missal, 3rd Edition*

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

*"He is not God of the dead,
 but of the living, for to Him all are alive."*

Luke 20:38

Luke 20:27-38

"Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full." (Psalm 17)

- What is your vision of life after death? How does this vision affect your daily decisions/actions?

- Do you really believe that you shall live again after death? How has your decision been formed?

- How often do you share this hope with unbelieving co-workers?

What will it be like
 when the world comes to an end?

Dramatic upheavals are foretold in Sacred Scripture---the wickedness that will be plainly manifest, the trials, and persecutions that will put the faith of many to the test, these are only the dark side. God's definitive victory over evil will be visible. God's glory, truth, and justice will stand out brilliantly. With Christ's coming there will be a "New heaven and a new earth." He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more ...for the former things have passed away (Rev 21:14). (From the Youth Catechism of the Catholic Faith) (Youcat #112)
