From the Pastor's Desk

On this first Sunday in July please look towards the last Sunday the 28th! You are invited to see how you can help with our annual parish picnic to be held that day at Matthews Thomas Park in Boston Heights by saving the day to celebrate Mass and be together as parishioners! Please mark you calendars for our special Parish Day. On this Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time let us pray:

*O God, who in the abasement of Your Son have raised up a fallen world,
fill You faithful with holy joy,
for on those You have rescued from slavery to sin
You bestow eternal gladness.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son,
Who lives and reigns with You in the unity
of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.*

July 7, 2013
14th Sunday in Ordinary
Time

“Peace to this household.”

Luke 9:11b-17

“Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.” (Psalm 66)

• In what ways do you allow your peace to rest upon others?

• If you have had to ‘shake off the dust’ of an unhealthy situation, who was your support and how did they help?

• When have you been tempted by power to forget God’s saving gift?

What is Freedom?

Freedom is the God-given power to be able to act of one’s own accord; a person who is free no longer acts under the influence of someone else. God created us as free men and women with free wills so that we might decide wholeheartedly in favor of good, in fact for the greatest good. An individual can choose evil, but it does not make him happy, but rather deprives the person of what is truly good. St. Augustine wrote in the 5th century, “The good man is free, even if he is a slave. The evil man is a slave, even if he is a king.” (From the Youth Catechism of the Catholic Church) (Youcat #286)
