From the Pastor's Desk

We as the Church are once again about to commemorate our Lord Jesus Christ coming in history. On this Fourth Sunday in Advent we hear in the Gospel of Luke, "Blessed are you who believed that what was spoken to you by the Lord would be fulfilled" (Luke 1:45). These words are spoken to Mary as she visits her cousin Elizabeth. She comes out of compassion to assist her cousin in her need. Elizabeth's child leaps for joy at the coming of the Savior. May we, like Mary, believe that the word of the Lord can be fulfilled in us. Like Mary, we can bring joy to our time by welcoming Christ in our life and carrying Him into the world.

*Pour forth, we beseech You, O Lord,
Your grace into our hearts,
That we, to Whom the Incarnation of Christ Your Son
Was made known by the message of an Angel,
May by His Passion and Cross
Be brought to the glory of His Resurrection.
Who lives and reigns with You in the unity
Of the Holy Spirit,
One God, for ever and ever.
Amen.*

May Susan, Janet, and all our beloved dead live forever in the joy of the Resurrection, and may their families and friends be consoled. Amen.

“Blessed are you who believed that what was spoken to you by the Lord would be fulfilled.”

Luke 1:45

General Intercession

That each family may believe in and feel God’s presence in their daily lives and know that this is what makes them a holy family. Let us pray to the Lord.

Family Perspectives

Jesus was born into a family. Because of His birth, not only was the world changed--the role of family life was also profoundly changed. Every family is called to recognize, value, and nurture the presence of God in their midst.

Sunday, December 23: Luke 1: 39-45

Lord, make us turn to you; let us see your face and we shall be saved. (Ps 80)

- Who in your life has provided blessed assurance that Christ abides in you?
- How has the Spirit of Christ worked through you to heal, comfort and support?
- Believing every child is a precious gift, how can you better at least one child’s life?
- What will you do today to ensure that you and your loved ones are able to fix your eyes to see Christ present tomorrow?

It is the love of Christ that fills our hearts and impels us to evangelize. Today, as in the past, He sends us through the highways of the world to proclaim His Gospel to all the peoples of the earth. (PF 15)

Incarnation---Why did God become man in Jesus?

In Jesus Christ, God reconciled the world to himself and redeemed mankind from the imprisonment of sin, “God so loved the world that he gave his only-begotten Son” (Jn 3:16). In Jesus, God took on the mortal human flesh (Incarnation), shared our sufferings and death and become one like us in all things but sin. “God is so great that he can become small. God is so powerful that he can make himself vulnerable and come to us as a defenseless child, so that we can love him,” Pope Benedict XVI--Christmas Eve, 2005.
