Amen.

What Price Religious Freedom?

"For Greater Glory", is a film about the struggle for religious freedom in Mexico in the mid 1920's. This Mexican made film has a cast of great Hollywood stars and approaches the Church and Catholic faith with seriousness, respect and sensitivity. Almost all the characters are based on real persons, and the storyline strives to be faithful to actual events (Zenit.org). "For Greater Glory" opens June 1st in the Akron-Canton area at the Regal Theater at I-77 and South Arlington St. A must see film for all those who value freedom and religious liberty. Visit www.forgreaterglory.com.
