From the Pastor's Desk

Pentecost Sunday in our parish is also Pentecost as it was for those 120 disciples, including Mother Mary, the apostles, that waited in Jerusalem for promise of the Spirit. A mighty wind may not come to our parish church, nor tongues as if of fire appear above the heads of this year's candidates as they are confirmed at the 11:00am Mass this Sunday. But like the disciples of old, and believers throughout the history of the Church, they will be filled with the Holy Spirit. So let us pray...

O God, who by the mystery of today's great feast Sanctify Your whole Church in every people and nation, Pour out, we pray, the gifts of the Holy Spirit Across the face of the earth And, with the divine grace that was at work When the Gospel was first proclaimed, Fill now once more the hearts of believers. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

Solemnity of Pentecost

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst.

John 20:19

YEAR OF FAITH 2012-2013

John 20:19-23

Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven.

• Jesus always modeled forgiveness, even on the cross. How does his example help you to forgive?

• Reflect on a time recently when you have been hurt by someone. Can the Holy Spirit help in beginning the process of forgiving that person?

• As forgiveness is divine how can we forgive through the power of the Holy Spirit?

What is the sacrament of Confirmation?

Confirmation completes Baptism. The gift of the Holy Spirit is bestowed upon us. The anointing brings the gifts of the Holy Spirit, strengthening our witness to God's love and might in word and deed. In Confirmation one is now a full-fledged, responsible member of the Catholic Church. In sports, when a coach sends a player into the game he puts his hand on his/her shoulder and gives him final instructions. We can understand Confirmation in a similar way. In the Acts of Apostles, Peter and John travel about to confirm new Christians by imposing hands on those who previously had only been baptized.
