

The U.S. bishops have called for a Fortnight for Freedom, a two-week period (June 21 - July 4) of prayer and action, to address many current challenges to religious liberty, including the August 1, 2013 deadline for religious organizations to comply with the HHS mandate, Supreme Court rulings that could attempt to redefine marriage in June, and religious liberty concerns in areas such as immigration and humanitarian services. Thursday, July 4, there will be a 10:00am Mass at the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist (1007 Superior Ave. East, Cleveland, OH 44114) to conclude the 2013 Fortnight For Freedom. Please visit www.Fortnight4Freedom.org and www.dioceseofcleveland.org/freedom for prayers, information, and to take action! Please consider fasting (TV time, music, a favorite food, dessert, or beverage), praying (the Rosary, a novena, the Divine Mercy Chaplet), and attending daily Mass as often as possible during these two weeks.

"We have a great task in front of us. It will not be easy, and we may well suffer, as we are called to do. But we will not fail. And that is because we are well-equipped with the tools we will truly need—the love of Christ and the truth about the human person. All that remains for us to do is to take up those tools and put them to work."

Archbishop of Baltimore

Unwanted Furniture?
