

From the Pastor's Desk

On this Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time we are asked to use our talents, all that God has given us, to the best of our ability and for the good of one another. To be the best we can be, is the way of giving honor and thanks to God. Whatever we have been given by God is what we are to use. Whether we have much or little is not what matters. What matters is to remember we are children of the light, ever ready for the coming of the Lord. We count our blessings, use responsibly what we have, seeking in all things to do God's will.

*Grant us, we pray, O Lord our God,
the constant gladness of being devoted to you,
for it is full and lasting happiness
to serve with constancy
the author of all that is good.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity
of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.*

Amen.

Pope's Intention for November Artificial Intelligence

*That the progress of robotics and artificial intelligence may always serve humankind.
Amen.*

General Intercession

*That God will open our eyes to see the gift we are to one another and give us the energy to invest ourselves deeply and selflessly
in the lives of those near and dear to us.
Let us pray to the Lord.*

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities."
- Matthew 25:21

Family Perspective

The servant in the gospel was afraid to invest the money given to him. In our families, if we fail to invest ourselves in each other we will end up just like the servant--a loser! Without personal investment in a relationship, there are no dividends, no growth and ultimately no relationship.

"The Institute of Catholic Studies at John Carroll University invites you to hear the lecture: "Troubling Times for Catholic Universities: Lessons from Fr. Theodore Hesburgh," given by Edward P. Read and pray daily the Scriptures.

St. Michael, the Archangel defend us in battle, be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though You have already come, I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You; never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.
