From the Pastor's Desk

On this 21st Sunday in Ordinary Time with St. Peter the Apostle we can answer that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the God (Matthew 15:21-28). By God's grace we can say this. May we witness to this knowledge by how we live.

O God, who cause the minds of the faithful to unite in a single purpose, grant your people to love what you command and to desire what you promise, that, amid the uncertainties of this world, our hearts may be fixed on that place where true gladness is found. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Collect, 21st Sunday in Ordinary Time (Roman Missal, 3rd Edition)

Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

Matthew 16:19

Family Perspectives

When Jesus asked, "Who do people say I am?", He heard a variety of answers. If that question was asked about us, how would people answer? We juggle many roles to meet the many demands on our time. It takes special effort not to neglect our family responsibilities as spouse, parent, son, or daughter. Who do people say you are? Would you get the answer you want to hear?
