Family Perspectives

Today's gospel challenges families: are we living by God's standards or by human ones? Families today are assailed by a consumer culture that tells us "we are what we own". To us Jesus responds: "What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?" Think long term and sacrifice for that which is eternal. Don't shortcut effort or short sell time with your family.

General Intercessions

That families will put following Jesus ahead of finances, fashion or fun when making decisions and planning their calendars. Let us pray to the Lord.

Called to follow the Lord in all circumstances, on this 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time, we pray....

*God of might, giver of every good gift,
put into our hearts the love of Your name,
so that, by deepening our sense of reverence,
You may nurture in us what is good
and, by Your watchful care,
keep safe what You have nurtured.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.*

A Prayer for Labor Day

*Lord on this Labor Day,
we thank You for the blessing of work.
We ask for strength to complete each day.
We ask for rest when we are weary.
We ask Your guidance for everyone seeking employment,
and we ask that You be with those whose faces
we might never see but who work tirelessly each day
for the good of us all.
Amen.*
