Family Perspectives

Listening! It sounds so easy, but is so often very difficult. Our first reaction might be to advise, correct, or direct. That isn't listening! Listening cements relationships, develops trust, and conveys love and understanding. It also allows us to discover God's presence in the encounter, for Christ tells us, "Wherever two or three are gathered in my name, there I am in their midst."

General Intercessions

For the grace and patience to truly listen and understand each other, let us pray to the Lord.

From the Pastor's Desk

How are we bound together as a people, as the Church? Is it not through the love of Christ? In that same love we are called to care for one another. We are called to be reconciled to one another. There is the challenge! Sometimes it seems that our hurts and grudges are our life blood. We gossip. What we say may be true. We are wounded. The hurt is deep. But by His wounds we were given life and can be healed. On this 23rd Sunday may we meditate on the Love that binds us one.

*O God, by whom we are redeemed and receive adoption,
look graciously upon
Your beloved sons and daughters, that those who believe in Christ
may receive true freedom and an everlasting inheritance.*

*Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.*

Amen.

Collect, 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time (Roman Missal, 3rd Edition)
