In the scripture readings for the Mass of Fifth Sunday of Easter, we hear about the concern to help better accommodate the needs of the members of the community. The solution was the establishment of the "diaconate". Seven holy men, among them St. Stephen, were called to serve, that the needs of the community would be better met. As we continue to listen God's word this weekend, we are also reminded of our call to serve. Since we have been called from darkness into light, we are to evangelize, hand on to others the Good News we have been entrusted with and so we pray...

*Almighty ever-living God, constantly accomplish the Paschal Mystery within us, that those You were pleased to make new in Holy Baptism may,
under Your protective care, bear much fruit and come to the joys of life eternal.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.*

Collect, 5th Sunday of Easter (Roman Missal, 3rd Edition)

Family Perspectives

Philip said: "Show us the Father." Jesus responded, "I am in the Father and the Father is in me." God is in each of us, in our relationships and in our homes. The vocation of the Christian family is to live the unity with God that is already there so that all the Philips of the world will recognize the presence of God in their lives also.

Mark Your Calendars!

The third annual Fortnight for Freedom is to be observed June 21 – July 4, 2014. The 2014 theme focuses on ‘Freedom to Serve’ the poor and vulnerable.

“During the Fortnight, our liturgical calendar celebrates great martyrs who remained faithful in the face of persecution by political power—St. John Fisher and St. Thomas More, John the Baptist, Peter and Paul and the first martyrs of the Church of Rome,” said Archbishop William E. Lori of Baltimore, chairman of the Ad Hoc Committee for Religious Liberty of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB). “This is a time when Catholics can unite themselves in prayer to the men and women throughout history who spread the Gospel and lived out Jesus’ call to serve the ‘least of these’ in even the direst of circumstances.”

More information on the Fortnight and related issues can be found online at www.fortnight4freedom.org and www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/religious-liberty.
