General Intercessions

May all the gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit be seen, heard and felt in our families, we pray to the Lord.

Family Perspectives

We want to be perfect, but we aren't. We are all wounded. What annoys us in another is often something that pains us or that we dislike in ourselves. In our families, let's take a tip from today's gospel and forgive our imperfections. Then we will experience the peace that Jesus promises in today's reading.

Read and Pray the Scriptures Daily!

This Sunday is the great feast of Pentecost. We recall the fulfillment of the promise of the Lord to send the Holy Spirit to be with the Church. As the disciples were gathered in prayer with Mother Mary, the Holy Spirit came upon them and the Church was born. No longer afraid, they preached the Good News and brought the new life of Jesus to Jerusalem and all the world. All open to the Spirit understood the language of God's love. As my class and I mark this day, June 8th, our 40th anniversary of priesthood ordination and service to God's people, please pray for us and with us as we give thanks and continue in the service of Lord and all of you! May we all be renewed in the gift of the Spirit.

*Almighty ever-living God,
Who willed the Paschal Mystery
to be encompassed as a sign in fifty days, grant that from out of the scattered nations
the confusion of many tongues may be gathered by heavenly grace into one great confession of Your name...
Amen.*

Collect, Pentecost Sunday (Roman Missal, 3rd Edition)

A Catholic Gentleman

Please remember in your prayers, parishioner Augustus "Gus" Francis Stuhldreher. As a member of our parish, as he did in every parish he belonged to, Gus served the Lord by his time, talent and treasure. His example of faith and love of God, family and country all through his life inspired young and old alike. In his years at Mother of Sorrows many will remember how Gus prayerfully approached the altar to proclaim the Scriptures at the 11:00am Sunday Mass or whenever else called upon to read at a Liturgy. May our beloved parishioner Gus and all our deceased live forever in the joy of the Resurrection and may their families and friends be granted consolation. Amen.

Mark Your Calendars!

The third annual Fortnight for Freedom is to be observed June 21 – July 4. The 2014 theme focuses on ‘Freedom to Serve’ the poor and vulnerable. “During the Fortnight, our liturgical calendar celebrates great martyrs who remained faithful in the face of persecution by political power—St. John Fisher and St. Thomas More, John the Baptist, Peter and Paul and the first martyrs of the Church of Rome,” said Archbishop William E. Lori of Baltimore, chairman of the Ad Hoc Committee for Religious Liberty of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB). “This is a time when Catholics can unite themselves in prayer to the men and women throughout history who spread the Gospel and lived out Jesus’ call to serve the ‘least of these’ in even the direst of circumstances.” More information can be found at www.fortnight4freedom.org and at www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/religious-liberty.
