On this Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time we are reminded that nothing is too small or too little as regards an act of kindness or a good deed done out of love God or neighbor. A simple prayer of thanks or a few minutes shared with a lonely or desperate person may have far reaching effects like the mustard seed in today's parable.

*O God, strength of those who hope in you,
graciously hear our pleas,
and, since without you mortal frailty can do nothing, grant us always the help of your grace, that in following your commands we may please you by our resolve and our deeds.*

*Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity
of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.*

Amen.

Roman Missal, 3rd Edition)*

50th Wedding Anniversary

Congratulations to Martin and Marilyn Griffith as they celebrate fifty years of married love. Blessings to you both and your family!

General Intercession

*For families to be fertile ground where the faith of each member is nurtured to grow and bear abundant fruit,
We pray to the Lord.*

In Your Charity

Please remember in your prayers, Mrs. Anna Marie Loya, mother of Father John Loya. May Anna Marie live forever in the joy of the Resurrection and may her family and friends be consoled. Amen.

Family Perspectives

The gospel speaks of "the smallest of all seeds which grows and become the greatest of shrubs". The seemingly insignificant acts of parents can have a tremendous effect upon their children. The smallest acts of love, attention and approval, or the moments of time spent together, are acts of faith and hope. Faith, because we show our belief and confidence in our children; hope, because we will not see the results of our parenting for many years.

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it?

Mark 4:30

Night at the Movies

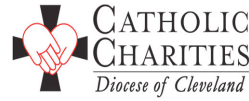

The USCCB's Fortnight for Freedom: Freedom to Bear Witness will take place from June 21 to July 4, 2015, a time when our liturgical calendar celebrates a series of great martyrs who remained faithful in the face of persecution by political power—St. Thomas More and St. John Fisher, St. John the Baptist, SS. Peter and Paul, and the First Martyrs of the Church of Rome. The theme of this year's Fortnight will focus on the "freedom to bear witness" to the truth of the Gospel. To deepen our awareness and understanding of the multiple current cultural issues impacting our freedom of religion, the Knights of Columbus are sponsoring showings across Ohio, of a riveting, new religious freedom documentary, One Generation Away. Our Father Maruskin Council, #10936, will be showing the film Sunday evening, June 28 at 7:30pm in the lower church hall at Holy Family in Stow. The film runs approximately 85 minutes, is non-partisan, non-denominational and is appropriate for most age groups from middle school and older. Light refreshments will be served. Join us as we heed the wisdom of former President Ronald Reagan, "Freedom is never more than one generation away from extinction. We didn't pass it on to our children in their bloodstream. The only way they can inherit the freedom we have known is if we fight for it, protect it, defend it and then hand it to them with the well taught lessons of how they in their lifetimes must do the same."

The FEST

Join us for the FEST on Sunday, August 9 on the grounds of the Center for Pastoral Leadership (28700 Euclid Ave., Wickliffe). It is a day that celebrates faith and family. It's fun and it's free! Join thousands, from across region, as we come together for national Christian bands (MercyMe, Steven Curtis Chapman, Building 429 and Matt Maher). Along with great faith-based activities and interactive displays for the whole family. The day ends with an outdoor Mass at 8pm followed by an incredible American Fireworks display. Consider volunteering for two hours during The FEST. Volunteers get a free t-shirt and are essential to making this event possible. For more info, or to register to help, visit www.theFEST.us.

NFP

Natural Family Planning classes will be held at Holy Family Parish in Stow beginning June 24, from 7-9pm. Classes give all the resources necessary to easily, simply, and successfully practice NFP in your marriage. The classes are great for both married and engaged couples seeking to lead a more natural, healthy lifestyle and for those seeking to bring their relationship in accord with the Church's divine teaching on contraception. NFP is perfect for all couples, including those having problems getting pregnant and also for those who wish to postpone pregnancy. Set these dates aside: 6/24, 7/15, 8/5, 9/2. For more info, or to register, call Leo and Toni Doty at 330-689-0632.
