Family Perspectives

Today's feast honors the Lateran Basilica as "the mother and head of all churches of Rome and the world." The universal Church has grown tremendously since the 4th century when this basilica was dedicated. Let us remember that Family- the Church of the Home-is the first church and school of faith for each new generation of Christians. "The future of the world and of the Church passes by way of the family."(John Paul II)

Read and Pray the Scriptures Daily!

As we enter the 32nd Week in Ordinary Time, it begins with the anniversary of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica, the cathedral church of Rome. Pope Clement XII placed an inscription on the on the wall of church which explains why the whole Catholic Church marks this feast. It states that it is the "mother and head of all the churches of Rome and the world." Let us pray...

*O God, who from living and chosen stones prepare an eternal dwelling for Your majesty, increase in Your Church the spirit of grace You have bestowed, so that by new growth Your faithful people may build up the heavenly Jerusalem. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.*

Collect, Dedication of The Lateran Basilica (Roman Missal, 3rd Edition)
