Daily read & pray the Scriptures!

Jesus is Risen! Indeed He is Risen!! So we acclaimed on Easter but we continue to celebrate the joy and faith of Easter! We, like the Apostles, may not understand but like Thomas we say...My Lord and my God! On this Second Sunday of Easter, Sunday of Divine Mercy, may Jesus' gift Peace strengthen our faith and enable us to encourage one another. Let us pray...

*God of everlasting mercy,
who in the very recurrence of the paschal feast
kindle the faith of the people you have made your own,
increase, we pray, the grace you have bestowed,
that all may grasp and rightly understand
in what font they have been washed,
by whose Spirit they have been reborn,
by whose Blood they have been redeemed.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity
of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.*

Amen.

Collect, Sunday of Divine Mercy (Roman Missal, 3rd Edition)

Second Sunday of Easter
Have you come to believe
because you have seen me?
Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed.*

John 20:29

Prayer for Occupations

We pray for those who work in construction and related trades, that they respond fully to the call of our baptism and accept the grace to remain open to God's call to serve in and through their daily work constructing and finishing buildings and infrastructure in our community. Amen.

Family Perspectives

Disagreements are normal in family life. That is why forgiveness also needs to be routine in our families. The problem is that many families are good at disagreeing but not skilled at reconciling. Like the disciples in the gospel we hide behind locked doors out of fear that we may lose face or be seen as wrong or weak. As long as we allow our fear to rule our actions, we will never experience the peace that Jesus promises in today's gospel. Take the first step in offering an apology or forgiveness.

General Intercession

For parents and spouses, that they will learn to be agents of forgiveness in their family, so that the peace of Christ will be present in their home, we pray to the Lord.
