General Intercessions

For parishes as they welcome and prepare parents to bring their children to the font of Baptism.

Let us pray to the Lord.

Family Perspectives

Jesus, with whom God the Father is well pleased, calls us to serve others as he did, bringing light, justice and doing good works. We are baptized into His new covenant and are to proclaim the reign of God in word and action.

Read and Pray
The Scriptures!

From the Pastor's Desk

On this Feast of the Baptism of the Lord we recall that the waters were made holy by the one baptized. In the same waters made holy by our Savior, He is made known as the beloved of the Father. In Christ, in the waters of baptism, we are chosen, reborn as God's adopted sons and daughters. Let us daily celebrate and live the new life of Christ as we witness to our life in the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Let us pray...

*Almighty ever-living God, who,
when Christ had been baptized in the River Jordan
and as the Holy Spirit descended upon Him, solemnly declared Him Your beloved Son,
grant that Your children by adoption,
reborn of water and the Holy Spirit,
may always be well pleasing to You.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son,
who lives and reigns with You in the unity
of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.*

Amen.

Collect, The Baptism of the Lord (Roman Missal, 3rd Edition)

Theology On Tap

Held January 22 at Winking Lizard, Lakewood. Social at 6pm. At 7pm, Brian Sinchak will speak on the topic, “Why I Choose to Work for the Catholic Church”. Cost is $5. Northeast Ohio Theology on Tap affords young adults and their friends, married and single, in their 20s and 30s an opportunity to learn about the Catholic faith with dynamic speakers, a casual setting, and good company. For more information, please visit www.ccdocle.org/program/neo-theology-on-tap or contact Mark Delsander at 216-334-1261 x25 or mxdelsander@clevelandcatholiccharities.org.

Special Lecture on Ecumenism

Fr. Joseph Loya OSA (Order of St. Augustine) will offer the annual Christian Unity Lecture, Friday, January 16 at 1:30pm at the Center for Pastoral Leadership (28700 Euclid Ave., Wickliffe, OH 44092). The topic will be “East/West Christian Encounter: The American Experience.” The Church in the United States has a special chapter in initial interactions between Roman and Byzantine Catholics and the Eastern Orthodox churches. Fr. Loya will also offer some pastoral and practical advice for Roman Catholic clergy and pastoral ministers when dealing with issues that touch on Eastern Christian Churches. Lunch will be available in the CPL dining room at 12:30pm. For reservations or more info, contact Paula Moscovic at jhilinski@dioceseofcleveland.org or 216-696-6525 xt3500. The lecture is open to the public and is cosponsored by the Diocesan Ecumenical Commission and St. Mary Seminary School of Theology.

For additional information or to register, please contact Arch and Marlyn Tunnell at 440-442-7538.

Touch a life... Become a Hospice Volunteer.

Hospice is a philosophy of care, not a place. We care for our patients wherever they call home. As a vital part of our team volunteers come from all walks of life, and have a variety of skills, talents and abilities. Opportunities to serve are diverse. Volunteer education is held frequently throughout northern Ohio. Teen and most volunteers not having contact with patients take 4 hours of training while patient care volunteers have 16 hours. For additional information, please call 800-707-8922 x6881 or visit www.hospice.org/volunteer/volunteer-opportunities.

Second Collection this Weekend

Today's second collection is for the Catholic University of America, the national university of the Catholic Church in the United States, located in Washington, D.C. CUA provides an academically rigorous education guided by Catholic intellectual tradition to nearly 7,000 students every year. More than 4,000 students directly receive scholarship aid from this collection, including many from our diocese. Thank you for your prayers and support!
