On this 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time we can reflect on what we value as truly important lest we be found foolish and having lost what we thought we had...

Draw near to your servants, O Lord, and answer their prayers with unceasing kindness, that, for those who glory in you as their Creator and guide, you may restore what you have created and keep safe what you have restored. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit one God, for ever and ever. Amen

Collect, 18th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Roman Missal, 3rd Edition

Family Perspectives

In today's gospel Jesus tells us: "One's life does not consist in the abundance of possessions." When we spend too much time working to obtain more stuff we don't have time for the people in our lives. What is "enough"? Are the words of Jesus, "You fool", meant for us? Pope Francis warns us to resist a "throw-away culture" which values things over people and relationships. Make time and space for the people you love.
