Read and pray the Scriptures daily!

From the Pastor's Desk

This Fifth Sunday of Easter brings us to reflect on how by our baptism we are one with Christ just as the branches have been grafted onto the vine. Only by being one with Christ by keep His word and following His will we be able to bear fruit the at brings us and others to eternal life. Let us pray...

Almighty ever-living God, constantly accomplish the Paschal Mystery within us, that those you were pleased to make new in Holy Baptism may, under your protective care, bear much fruit and come to the joys of life eternal. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

Collect, Fifth Sunday of Easter, Roman Missal, 3rd Edition

In your Charity

Please pray for Mrs. Beverly Phelps, sister of Deacon Larry Gregg, also remember Terry McNally, brother of Nora Puglia, father of Colleen McNally, and Nora Puglia's other brother and uncle of Collen McNally, Patrick McNally. May Beverly, Terry, Patrick and all who have gone before us in faith live forever in the joy of the Resurrection. May their families and friends be consoled. Amen.

Family Perspectives

Jesus, the true vine, expects us, the branches, to bear fruit. Because he loves us, he prunes us so that we will bear better fruit. Parents know the challenging work of disciplining their children with patient love each day. Discipline, like pruning, shapes them to be better disciples.

There's Hope

Many in our region are struggling with the pain and devastation caused by the heroin epidemic. As you've read in the paper and on the internet, and seen on the news, it's a painful struggle that is gripping our region and our state. There is always hope and there are pathways to find help. If you, or someone you know, is struggling with addiction or needs help in supporting a family member, go to www.GreaterthanHeroin.com. It's a website prepared by civic and faith leaders across our region to help show the way to hope and recovery.

Catholic Home Missions Collection

Support the Catholic Home Missions Appeal today! Right now, over 40 percent of dioceses in the United States are considered home mission territory because they are unable to fund the essential pastoral work needed in their communities. Your support funds programs, such as religious education, seminary formation, and lay ministry training, to build vibrant faith communities right here in the United States. Please be generous. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions.
