MISSION STATEMENT

We, the parishioners of Mother of Sorrows Parish, established in 1882, Christ centered and empowered by the Holy Spirit, dedicate ourselves to serve the needs of all by liturgical worship and parish ministries.

From the Pastor's Desk

On this First Sunday of Lent let us pray...

*Grant, almighty God,
through the yearly observance of holy Lent,
that we may grow in understanding of the riches hidden in Christ and by worthy conduct pursue their effects.*

*Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the holy Spirit,
One God, for ever and ever. Amen.*

Collect, First Sunday of Lent, Roman Missal, 3rd Edition

Pope's Intention for February Violence against women

*We pray for women who are victims of violence, that they may be protected by society and have their sufferings considered and heeded.
Let us pray to the Lord.*

The 2021 Catholic Charities Annual Appeal is underway with an in-pew commitment process taking place this weekend. This is not a special collection; rather, the Catholic Charities Annual Appeal represents the chance for all Catholics to make a significant pledge, payable in installments, to Catholic Charities, Diocese of Cleveland in order to support its mission of a society that stands united in its support of the "least among us." Many parishioners have received a letter from Bishop Malesic requesting their support. If you have not received this letter, please respond to the in-pew commitment process today! If you have received the mailing, please respond to it. There is a box on the in-pew envelope to indicate that you have responded by mail. Your support of the 2021 Catholic Charities Annual Appeal helps us to carry out the mission that Jesus entrusted to us: I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me.' Please consider a generous gift that will change the lives of the 400,000 who are served each year in Northeast Ohio. Please pray for the success of the Appeal, which provides for essential programs and services in need throughout all eight counties of the Diocese of Cleveland. We invite you to view stories of inspiration and more information at CatholicCommunity.org/2021Appeal. Donations will be doubled by a generous donor, who believes in the mission of Catholic Charities, up to $1 million. Please note that you can make your donation online at CatholicCommunity.org/Match. Thank you!

FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

Doing the rite thing

Today, some of our neighbors are going to make a countercultural choice. They're going to sign the Book of the Elect, signaling their decision to be baptized, confirmed, and to receive First Eucharist at this year's Easter Vigil. These Elect have been studying for months or years to embrace the life of the church. Why would anyone make this choice in the 21st century? For some, it may have begun as intellectual curiosity. For others, it's a journey of the heart. For all, it's what they've seen in folks like us that make Catholic Christianity an inspiring choice. Let's help keep the inspiration going!

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 9:8-15; 1 Peter 3:18-22; Mark 1:12-15 (23). "The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel."

Monday, Feb 22, 2021

FEAST OF THE CHAIR OF PETER, APOSTLE

Recognize the chair

Jesus loved us so much that he entrusted us to someone he trusted deeply. In fact, in the Gospel of John, Jesus asked Peter three times if his devotion was assured. He named him "rock" so he would be a solid foundation upon which to build the church, and for 2,000 years Peter's successors have had the responsibility of tending his sheep. Today we celebrate the seat of the pope's authority as Christ's representative on Earth, the protector Jesus wanted for his flock. Ask the Holy Spirit to always guide the one who sits in Peter's chair.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Peter 5:1-4; Matthew 16:13-19 (535). "I will give you the keys to the Kingdom of heaven."

Tuesday, Feb 23, 2021

MEMORIAL OF POLYCARP, BISHOP, MARTYR

Words to live forever by

Polycarp's death in 155 is one of the first accounts of Christian martyrdom in a public arena. The elderly bishop was resolute and serene even as he was burned and stabbed before a frenzied crowd. Included in the accounts is the two hours of prayer Polycarp began upon his arrest, so powerful it unnerved his Roman guards. But Polycarp was also an Apostolic Father, specifically a disciple of Saint John the Evangelist. Thus, he had firsthand knowledge of John's words from Jesus: "Everyone who lives and believes in me will never die."

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 55:10-11; Matthew 6:7-15 (225). "Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven."

LENTEL WEEKDAY

A good day to make amends

We are one week into this Lenten season, so perhaps it is time to have a conversation with our Lord. Imagine you are walking with Jesus, side by side, and he asks you, "Is there any person you think of who you have hurt or judged, or any action that comes to mind that you know was wrong? Anything you repent?" You take a moment, and standing next to him, you feel his love for you. Regret and sorrow arise as you admit the mistakes that come to mind. You ask for the grace to make amends in whatever way possible.

Find a way today to make something right.

TODAY'S READINGS: Jonah 3:1-10; Luke 11:29-32 (226). "At the preaching of Jonah they repented, and there is something greater than Jonah here."

Thursday, Feb 25, 2021

LENTEL WEEKDAY

Has prayer moved you?

It is tempting to think about prayer in a transactional way: I ask, therefore God gives. Today's gospel may even appear to encourage this form of thought: "Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find." But Catholic teaching urges us to see God's response to prayer broadly. Pope Francis explains: "Prayer always transforms reality: if things around us do not change, at least our hearts are changed. Jesus promised the gift of the Holy Spirit to every man and woman who prays." If you have a prayer that seems unanswered, consider how your heart was moved by the mere act of praying.

TODAY'S READINGS: Esther C:12, 14-16, 23-25; Matthew 7:7-12 (227). "For everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds."

LENTEL WEEKDAY; DAY OF ABSTINENCE

The low rumble within

Anger is one of our human "passions," the Catechism of the Catholic Church instructs, neither good nor bad in and of itself. Anger can provide us with helpful information that we feel wronged by someone or something. It may be intense or a low rumble within. Lent is an opportunity to become still, listen to our anger, and examine its source. How might we invite God into these rough spaces for healing? Desiring healing does not disregard hurt or suffering; rather we seek to "unhook" from anger to live in peace. Unhooking might mean talking with a loved one who hurt us. It might mean protesting against injustice. It might mean forgiving ourselves. What might be rumbling within your heart?

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 18:21-28; Matthew 5:20-26 (228). "Go first and be reconciled."

Saturday, Feb 27, 2021

LENTEL WEEKDAY

Agree to disagree

There is no more timely message for our divided age of partisan politics than "love your enemies." But how is that even possible? One perspective that some find helpful is that "you don't have to like someone to love them." Love in this context is not a warm, fuzzy feeling but a decision to treat with respect, to "do unto others." A tall order, but it does help to remove the expectation that we have to become fast friends with those we oppose. And maybe it will lead to a time when we can see difficult folks as people with whom we happen to disagree, rather than mortal enemies. Jesus was all about reconciliation. Let's take up the mantle.

TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 26:16-19; Matthew 5:43-48 (229). "But I say to you, love your enemies."

HUNGER IN OUR WORLD

Jesus told us that whatever we did for one of these least brothers of his we did for him. Reflect on the challenge of global hunger— it is a reality for millions of our sisters and brothers. What will you do to support the hungry in our community and around the world? Visit crsricebowl.org to learn more.

First Week Of Lent Prayer Intentions

For our sisters and brothers who experience chronic hunger and malnutrition, that they may access the resources they need to stay healthy and thrive. We pray to the Lord ...

For our community, that we may be thankful for the gifts we have and realize that by sharing them with others we are sharing them with Christ himself. We pray to the Lord ...

Prayer to St. Joseph

*Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer,
Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you God entrusted his only Son;
in you Mary placed her trust;
with you Christ became man.*

*Blessed Joseph, to us too,
show yourself a father
and guide us in the path of life.*

*Obtain for us grace, mercy, and courage,
and defend us from every evil.*

Amen.

THE FAMILY THAT PRAYS TOGETHER STAYS TOGETHER.

21 February 2021 - First Sunday of Lent

Before his public ministry begins, Jesus spends forty days alone with wild beasts and angels. For the people of Israel, the desert hearkened back to the time of the Exodus when God led them in the wilderness, feeding them with manna, and finally revealing himself to them on the top of Mount Sinai. How will we, as a family unit, spend time in the “desert” this Lenten season? How will we journey with one another in the “wilderness?”

Universal Prayer . . . For families who are victims of violent crime and for their assailants, may the grace of God bring about repentance, reconciliation, and peace . . . Let us pray to the Lord.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though You have already come, I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You; never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Lent looks a little different this year. Catholic Relief Services has resources to keep your family engaged, including reflections, meatless recipes and stories from around the world. Participate in CRS Rice Bowl and learn more at <https://www.crsricebowl.org/families>.

The Catholic Cemeteries Association continues our socially distanced “in-office” Sunday Grief Support meetings on March 21st at 3:00pm with limited seating. We ask participants to RSVP so we can plan appropriate social distancing at each location. We continue to follow “safe” meeting guidelines provided by the Diocese and local health authorities. As part of our efforts to make available additional avenues of grief support resources, we have started a new virtual Grief Support Group on February 21st and March 21st at 5:00pm. If response to this virtual format of Grief Support is positive, we will continue to provide it monthly.

National Black and Indian Collection

This weekend, February 20 – 21, 2021 our parish is taking take up the 137th annual National Black and Indian Mission Collection. Our support of this collection helps build the Church in African American, Native American and Alaska Native communities from coast to coast. Schools, parish religious education programs and diocesan ministries depend on your generosity to help spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ! You can help meet unmet needs with a generous contribution today. Thank you in advance for your support!
