MISSION STATEMENT

We, the parishioners of Mother of Sorrows Parish, established in 1882, Christ centered and empowered by the Holy Spirit, dedicate ourselves to serve the needs of all by liturgical worship and parish ministries.

From the Pastor's Desk

On this Second Sunday of Lent the gospel account of the transfiguration of Jesus is recounted. This may come from an ancient tradition that the transfiguration took place forty days before Good Friday. The disciples would later understand what they experienced was seeing Jesus in glory. Jesus is the Messiah who came to suffer and die that we may come share in the glory of new life with Him. May we meditate more sincerely this Lent on His suffering, passion and death. May we learn to unite our sufferings and troubles to His that we might deepen our understanding of the Paschal mystery. Let us pray...

*O God, Who have commanded us to listen to Your beloved Son, be pleased, we pray, to nourish us inwardly by
Your word, that, with spiritual sight made pure,
we may rejoice to behold Your glory.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son,
who lives and reigns with You in the unity
of the Holy Spirit one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.*

Collect, Second Sunday of Lent,
Roman Missal, 3rd Edition

Pope's Intention for March Sacrament of Reconciliation

*Let us pray that we may experience
the Sacrament of Reconciliation with renewed depth, to taste the infinite mercy of God.*

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

Go all in

Erin became a Roman Catholic in midlife. When asked why, she says she tried fiercely to make life work according to her plan. Erin told God many times how it should go, attempting to persuade the powers that be to see it her way. Then one day God replied: My plan for you is so beautiful, wonderful, elegant. Why not try it instead? When Erin celebrated the Rites for Candidates for Full Communion on a Lenten Sunday just like this one, she found the joy she was missing. Pray for this year's candidates—and for candidates for years to come.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 22:1-2, 9a, 10-13, 15-18; Romans 8:31b-34; Mark 9:2-10 (26). "If God is for us, who can be against us?"

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Mercy me!

Pope Francis called mercy the "beating heart of the gospel." Mercy is forbearance, divine favor, compassionate treatment of the distressed and undeserving. It's another word for God's love. Consider showing devotion to it by reciting the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, a rosary-based prayer that was received by Saint Faustina, a Polish nun in the 1930s, through visions of Jesus. Divine Mercy Sunday is celebrated the week after Easter, but many make the Chaplet part of their regular Lenten practice by reciting it every day at 3 p.m. (the traditional hour of Christ's death). You can find the Chaplet on the USCCB website.

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 9:4b-10; Luke 6:36-38 (230). "Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful."

Tuesday, Mar 02, 2021

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Celebrate humble history

Women's History Month celebrates well-known women but also unsung heroines. How appropriate, then, that today is the feast of Agnes of Bohemia, a lesser-known saint. First cousin of Elizabeth of Hungary—and descendent of Good King Wenceslaus—Agnes came upon her vocation naturally. She built a hospital for the poor, a Franciscan friary, and a monastery for Poor Clare nuns. When she also became a nun and was urged to become abbess, she referred to herself only as "senior sister." She continued to cook for her sisters and mend the clothing of lepers rather than live a royal life. Celebrate the unsung heroines in your life.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 1:10, 16-20; Matthew 23:1-12 (231). "Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted."

MEMORIAL OF KATHARINE DREXEL, RELIGIOUS FOUNDER

We have work to do

Katharine Drexel (1858-1955) is a saint for our time. Born into a successful Philadelphia banking family, she used her wealth to improve the lives of others. Her Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament devoted their lives to education of Native and African Americans, building more than 100 schools in cities, rural areas, and on reservations. Though Katharine and her sisters at times faced criticism, endured racist taunts, and were threatened by the Ku Klux Klan, they remained steadfast in their mission. Patron saint of racial justice and philanthropy, Saint Katharine epitomizes the sacrifice of the Blessed Sacrament. How will you commit your own life to making the world more just?

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 18:18-20; Matthew 20:17-28 (232). "Can you drink the chalice that I am going to drink?"

Thursday, Mar 04, 2021

MEMORIAL OF CASIMIR

Grace under pressure

Saint Casimir seemed destined for riches and power, but this patron saint of Poland, called the Peacemaker, took a different path. Born in 1458 to the king and queen of Poland, he was a devout, ascetic child. At age 14 his father had him lead an army to install himself as king of Hungary, but with an overpowering enemy and troops beginning to desert, Casimir instead returned home. His furious father exiled him, but Casimir would never again take up arms. Rejecting violence when those around you embrace it can take great inner strength. Cultivate an inner compass that can pursue peace despite pressure.

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 17:5-10; Luke 16:19-31 (233). "Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, whose hope is the LORD."

LENTEN WEEKDAY; DAY OF ABSTINENCE

Pray for besieged people everywhere

Prayer is our life with God. Sometimes we carve out a particular time during the day, and sometimes there are specific words, images, or experiences that help us be more aware of or express our relationship with God. And so of course during Lent prayer is one of the pillars, along with fasting and almsgiving, that help us turn to God. On today's 2021 World Day of Prayer, an ecumenical observance, we are invited to "Build on a strong foundation." This theme comes from the women of Vanuatu, an island hit by Cyclone Harold in 2020. Despite the perils they faced—and we've all faced in a year of pandemic—the message of today's prayer is one of confidence in God's steadfastness and the rock of faith. Unite in prayer for healing and recovery.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 37:3-4, 12-13a, 17b-28a; Matthew 21:33-43, 45-46 (234). "The kingdom of God will be . . . given to a people that will produce its fruit."

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Sibling rivalry of biblical proportions

The Parable of the Prodigal Son could as easily be called the Parable of the Bitter Brother. The story might have ended with the celebration at the return of the repentant prodigal. But instead we are left to ponder the feelings of the "good son," the obedient one who followed all the rules but never got a party thrown in his honor. It's a very human story, reenacted in nearly every family in one form or another. "Mother always liked you best." "You were Dad's favorite." "All we ever did was bail you out of trouble." Will the bitter brother in the gospel story reconcile? Has bitterness or division in your own family been reconciled? Consider being the reconciler who brings it about.

TODAY'S READINGS: Micah 7:14-15, 18-20; Luke 15:1-3, 11-32 (235). "Look, all these years I served you and not once did I disobey your orders; yet you never gave me even a young goat to feast on with my friends."

Second Sunday of Lent

For expectant and new mothers around the world, that their children may grow and reach their full God-given potential. We pray to the Lord ...

For our community, that we may support mothers here and around the world so that all children experience the care they need to thrive. We pray to the Lord ...

Prayer to St. Joseph

*Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer,
Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you God entrusted his only Son;
in you Mary placed her trust;
with you Christ became man. Blessed Joseph,
to us too,
show yourself a father
and guide us in the path of life.
Obtain for us grace, mercy, and courage,
and defend us from every evil. Amen.*

Catholic Men's Conference

Although attendees will not be able to gather in person for the 2021 Catholic Men's Conference, the virtual event will include all the hallmarks of previous conferences. The first session of the daylong program, presented by the Catholic Men's Fellowship of Northeast Ohio, begins at 9 a.m. March 13 with prayer and reflection. The day will include a presentation by Peter Herbeck of Renewal Ministries on "A Call to Holiness." Greg Wasinski of Let Me Be Ministries, will speak on the Eucharist and Deacon Larry Oney's topic will be "Hope and Transformation." Father Michael McCandless, director of the diocesan Vocation Office, will offer a Lenten reflection and Gary Zimak will discuss how to "Give up Worry for Lent." Bishop Edward Malesic will address the conference in a pre-recorded message. For conference registration, visit cmfneo.com. Those who register for the program will receive information on how to access the online portal for the event. Cost for the day is $25 for individuals or group members. Student fee is $10; religious can attend for free. For more information, contact Ray Andreas, registration chairman, at rayandreas44@gmail.com or 216-403-5336.

28 February 2021 – Second Sunday of Lent

The transfiguration takes place only a few days after Jesus makes his first passion prediction to the disciples, telling them how “the Son of Man must suffer greatly and be rejected by elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and rise after three days.” The disciples had to question what rising from the dead meant and listen to Jesus. How do you take time in prayer not only to talk as a family, but also to listen to Jesus?

Universal Prayer . . . For all who live in a prison made of their own fear and scruples, may the love of Christ and the mercy of God free them to live in joy and peace. . . Let us pray to the Lord.

SECOND WEEK OF LENT

BETTER MEALS IN MADAGASCAR

In Madagascar, half of all children are undernourished. That means 50% of kids won't grow to reach their full potential. But communities are changing this by focusing on improving health and nutrition. What role has food played in your life? How can you help those who lack access to enough nutritious food. Visit crsricebowl.org to learn more.

The Catholic Cemeteries Association will continue our socially distanced "in-office" Sunday Grief Support meetings on March 21st at 3:00pm with limited seating. We ask participants to RSVP so we can plan appropriate social distancing at each location. We continue to follow "safe" meeting guidelines provided by the Diocese and local health authorities. In addition as part of our efforts to make available additional avenues of grief support resources, the next virtual Grief Support Group will be on March 21st at 5:00pm. If response to this virtual format of Grief Support is positive, we will continue to provide it monthly.
