From the Pastor's Desk

On this Sunday, The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi), may we prayerfully ponder what the Mass is ... a memorial, a sacrifice, a meal. We come to give thanks and praise, to actively enter into the Paschal Mystery ... Christ's life, death and resurrection ... and as Christ's unites us to His Sacrifice and to the Father ... then to be fed with His very Body and Blood: to bring us healing for the effects of our sins, to bring us comfort, to bring us nourishment. In particular on this Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi) let us pray ...

*O God, who in this wonderful Sacrament have left us a memorial of your Passion, grant us, we pray, so to revere the sacred mysteries of your Body and Blood that we may always experience in ourselves the fruits of your redemption. Who live and reign with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.*

Collect, The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi), Roman Missal, 3rd Edition

In your Charity

Please pray for Mary Dorothy Butkovic, wife of Deacon Donald Butkovic, Grace C. deHaas, mother of Deacon Thomas B.deHaas, Jr., and Elaine Hupertz, wife of Deacon Thomas G Hupertz . May Mary, Grace, Elaine and all who gone before us in Faith live forever in the joy of the Resurrection. May their family and friends be consoled. Amen.

Family Perspectives

Today's gospel talks about the last supper of Jesus. Notice that this meal, like all the other meals in Jesus' life growing up in Nazareth, started with a blessing. When we eat as a family it is important to start with a prayer. Praying reminds us that we sit at a table to do more than eat. We gather to share our lives and to strengthen the bond that calls us to live our lives for one another.

There's Hope

Many in our region are struggling with the pain and devastation caused by the heroin epidemic. As you've read in the paper and on the internet, and seen on the news, it's a painful struggle that is gripping our region and our state. There is always hope and there are pathways to find help. If you, or someone you know, is struggling with addiction or needs help in supporting a family member, go to www.GreaterthanHeroin.com. It's a website prepared by civic and faith leaders across our region to help show the way to hope and recovery.

Natural Family Planning

Natural Family Planning classes will be held at Holy Family Parish in Stow beginning June 27 at 7 pm. Classes give all the resources necessary to successfully practice NFP in your marriage. The classes are great for both married and engaged couples seeking to bring their relationship in accord with the Church's divine teaching on contraception, as well as those seeking to lead a more natural, healthy lifestyle. NFP is perfect for all couples including those having problems getting pregnant and also for those who wish to postpone pregnancy. Set these dates aside: 6/27, 7/19, 8/8, 8/29. For more information, or to register call Leo and Toni Doty (330)689-0632 or akdoty@kent.edu

2018 Hoban Summer Camps
