MISSION STATEMENT

We, the parishioners of Mother of Sorrows Parish, established in 1882, Christ centered and empowered by the Holy Spirit, dedicate ourselves to serve the needs of all by liturgical worship and parish ministries.

From the Pastor's Desk

On this Third Sunday of Lent as we listen to the readings of this weekend's liturgy let us reflect on our relationship with Jesus and how we understand the commandments in light of that relationship. How is our prayer life, penance and acts of charity this Lent bringing us closer to Jesus as we come to Him in the Sacrament of Reconciliation and Holy Communion? How are we becoming more loving of others ... especially those we most neglect? Let us pray ...

O God, author of every mercy of all goodness,
who in fasting, prayer and almsgiving
have shown us a remedy for sin,
look graciously on this confession of our lowliness,
that we, who are bowed down by our conscience,
may always be lifted up by your mercy.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

Balancing act

Saint Paul lived in that perilous posture you see in cartoon characters whose feet are on opposite supports that are swiftly gliding apart. As a privileged Roman citizen of Cilicia (modern Turkey), Paul had one foot firmly planted in the reality of Greco-Roman culture. Yet the other was just as securely fixed in his Jewish faith. It was a tough posture to maintain. Then Paul encountered the Risen Lord and understood in the gospel the most excellent way to unite Jews and Greeks in an elegantly reconciling Christian message. Christianity is for uniting, not dividing.

TODAY'S READINGS: Year B: Exodus 20:1-17; I Corinthians 1:22-25; John 2:13-25 (29). "Jews demand signs and Greeks look for wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified."

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Sisters act

How fitting that the first day of Catholic Sisters Week is also International Women's Day, celebrating achievements of women in politics, culture, and society. Catholic sisters have been making the world a better place for centuries! By teaching children, healing the sick, fighting injustice, promoting peace, defending the planet, creating community, and empowering other women, Catholic sisters are a powerful gospel witness—and many of us have been on the receiving end of their work and prayers. Celebrate sisters this week—find information and resources at catholicsistersweek.org.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Kings 5:1-15ab; Luke 4:24-30 (237). "Amen, I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own native place."

Tuesday, Mar 09, 2021

MEMORIAL OF FRANCES OF ROME, RELIGIOUS

A religious life for all

During a week that celebrates Catholic sisters, women religious, we remember an Italian saint who found a way to work and pray like a nun while staying committed to her immediate family. In fact, Frances of Rome—who nursed her sick husband and children, as well as the poor, during a plague in the 1400s—is commonly called a Benedictine oblate. An oblate is anyone who wants to share in the common vision and prayer of a religious community without officially entering religious life. Explore religious communities at VocationNetwork.org.

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 3:25, 34-43; Matthew 18:21-35 (238). "Let our sacrifice be in your presence today as we follow you unreservedly."

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Love will change the world

"Always remember, you have within you the strength, the patience, and the passion to reach for the stars to change the world." This quote belongs to Harriet Tubman, who died on this day in 1913. This courageous woman, who escaped the chains of slavery and then led hundreds of slaves to freedom, reminds us that no matter the odds, no matter the restrictions, God gives us strength to reach for the stars and become the Love we were created to be. On this mid-March day, in the third week of Lent, perhaps we could use a little encouragement to keep reaching for the stars as we respond to our Lenten call to love as God loves. Take one courageous step toward racial healing today.

TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 4:1, 5-9; Matthew 5:17-19 (239).

"But whoever obey and teaches these commandments will be called greatest in the kingdom of heaven."

Thursday, Mar 11, 2021

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Stretch your heart

One year ago this week, COVID-19 began to seriously disrupt lives in North America. During this tumultuous year, everyone has suffered, whether from isolation, illness, unemployment, or another pandemic problem. Pope Francis has urged us to grow from these experiences: "If we are to come out of this crisis less selfish than when we went in, we have to let ourselves be touched by others' pain," he wrote. Has COVID-19 stretched your heart? Whether you give to a food pantry or call a shut-in, act on your compassion today.

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 7:23-28; Luke 11:14-23 (240). "Every kingdom divided against itself will be laid waste and house will fall against house."

Friday, Mar 12, 2021

LENTEN WEEKDAY; DAY OF ABSTINENCE

Abstinence makes the heart grow fonder

As we practice Lenten abstinence today, we might keep in mind these words from fourth-century Saint Basil the Great: "True fast is the estrangement from evil, temperance of tongue, abstinence from anger, separation from desires, slander, falsehood, and perjury. Privation of these is true fasting." Being mindful of what goes into our mouths is important today, but being mindful of what comes out of them, even more so. Strive to abstain from the unkind, false, or hostile word today. And if you find you have broken the fast, make amends as best you can. Let this be your spiritual discipline today.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hosea 14:2-10; Mark 12:28-34 (241). "You are not far from the kingdom of God."

Saturday, Mar 13, 2021

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Pray the mercy mantra

Gregory Palamas, a saint of the Eastern Orthodox, Melkite, and Ukrainian Catholic Churches, taught that the use of the Jesus Prayer—"Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner"—prepares one to receive the grace-filled light of the Lord. This short, formulaic prayer has its roots in today's parable of the Pharisee and the Tax Collector. Saint John Paul II repeatedly cited Palamas as one of the great spiritual writers of history. Today, join with John Paul II and Palamas in heaven and the multitude of Catholics throughout the world who recite this spiritual mantra over and over again seeking the Lord's mercy.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hosea 6:1-6; Luke 18:9-14 (242). "For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though You have already come, I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You; never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Third Sunday of Lent

For young people in El Salvador and the entire world, that they might find training and job opportunities to thrive and transform their communities. We pray to the Lord ...

For our community, that we invest in and support our young people, who work to promote positive change for our human family, especially its most vulnerable members. We pray to the Lord ...

Prayer to St. Joseph

*Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer,
Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you God entrusted his only Son;
in you Mary placed her trust;
with you Christ became man. Blessed Joseph, to us too,
show yourself a father
and guide us in the path of life.
Obtain for us grace, mercy, and courage,
and defend us from every evil. Amen.*

PRAYER INTENTIONS

Catholic Men's Conference

Although attendees will not be able to gather in person for the 2021 Catholic Men's Conference, the virtual event will include all the hallmarks of previous conferences. The first session of the daylong program, presented by the Catholic Men's Fellowship of Northeast Ohio, begins at 9 a.m. March 13 with prayer and reflection. The day will include a presentation by Peter Herbeck of Renewal Ministries on "A Call to Holiness." Greg Wasinski of Let Me Be Ministries, will speak on the Eucharist and Deacon Larry Oney's topic will be "Hope and Transformation." Father Michael McCandless, director of the diocesan Vocation Office, will offer a Lenten reflection and Gary Zimak will discuss how to "Give up Worry for Lent." Bishop Edward Malesic will address the conference in a pre-recorded message. For conference registration, visit cmfneo.com. Those who register for the program will receive information on how to access the online portal for the event. Cost for the day is $25 for individuals or group members. Student fee is $10; religious can attend for free. For more information, contact Ray Andreas, registration chairman, at rayandreas44@gmail.com or 216-403-5336.

Local Programming at AM 1260 The Rock

"God Calling" airs Sundays at 4:30 PM and features vocation stories from priests, religious, married, and single Catholics. Veteran broadcaster Paul Orlousky hosts this 30-minute glimpse into how God calls each one of us.

Brooke Taylor is back with her weekly program featuring all new episodes. Tune in Wednesday mornings at 8:00 am to hear engaging interviews with theologians, athletes, priests, pastors, moms, and monks!

Visit www.am1260therock.com for previous recordings of these programs on our audio archive page, or to see our full array of programs under Schedule.

The Catholic Cemeteries Association will continue our socially distanced "in-office" Sunday Grief Support meetings on March 21st at 3:00pm with limited seating. We ask participants to RSVP so we can plan appropriate social distancing at each location. We continue to follow "safe" meeting guidelines provided by the Diocese and local health authorities. In addition as part of our efforts to make available additional avenues of grief support resources, the next virtual Grief Support Group will be on March 21st at 5:00pm. If response to this virtual format of Grief Support is positive, we will continue to provide it monthly.

Solemnity of St. Joseph

This year, the solemnity of Saint Joseph (March 19) falls on a Friday. As a solemnity, the requirement to abstain from meat on the Friday's within the season of Lent is dispensed for that day (see canon 1251). If they chose to make use of this special dispensation, the faithful are encouraged to choose another day during the week March 15-20 to abstain from meat as part of their Lenten observances.

On the solemnity of Saint Joseph it is the custom in some places to bless bread, pastries, and other food and give a large portion of it to the poor. A Family Ritual for this St. Joseph's Table blessing may be found on the Office for Worship website. We encourage all the faithful to use this solemnity as an opportunity to practice charitable almsgiving, living out the Lord's command to love our neighbor.

A Prayer for Pope Francis

On March 13th, we celebrate the eighth anniversary of Pope Francis' election! Say a prayer for the Holy Father.

*O God, shepherd and ruler of all the faithful,
look favorably on your servant Francis,
whom you have set at the head of your Church as her
shepherd;*

*Grant, we pray, that by word and example
he may be of service to those over whom he presides
so that, together with the flock entrusted to his care,
he may come to everlasting life.*

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

1495-1550 St. John of God ... Feast Day March 9th It is unclear whether he was taken from his Portuguese parents or left freely, but at just eight years old, John lived apart from his parents. He then led an irregular life in Spain and worked at various times as a shepherd, an estate manager, a book seller, and a soldier. His conversion at age 40 took such extreme forms—including beating himself in public while confessing his sins—that he was temporarily confined for lunacy. While confined, he began to serve other patients. In 1538, he began hospital work caring for the impoverished sick, begging for the supplies needed. He devoted himself to sheltering and caring of for the needy, including prostitutes and vagabonds. While he experienced persecution at first, this work eventually brought him respect and renown. He died on his 55th birthday, after which his companions who had joined him in service were organized into the Hospitaller Order of the Brothers St. John of God. John of God is the patron of booksellers, firefighters, hospitals, nurses, and the sick.

On March 19, 2021, the Church celebrates the fifth anniversary of the publication of Pope Francis's apostolic exhortation Amoris Laetitia, on the beauty and joy of love in the family. On this same day, Pope Francis will launch the year "Amoris Laetitia Family," which will conclude on June 26, 2022, during the X Meeting of Families in Rome with the Holy Father. Pope Francis announced the year of "Amoris Laetitia Family" during his Angelus Message on the Feast of the Holy Family on December 27, 2020. He ended his address invoking the Blessed Mother, "May the Virgin Mary grant that families throughout the world be increasingly fascinated by the evangelical ideal of the Holy Family, so as to become a leaven of [a] new humanity and of a genuine and universal solidarity." For more information on the year of "Amoris Laetitia Family" or to read the full text of Amoris Laetitia, please visit the Vatican website.

Please check the vestibule for more information on upcoming events, registration forms, prayer cards, and notices.

7 March 2021 – Third Sunday of Lent

In watching Jesus drive the money changers and the merchants from the temple, his disciples remember the verse from the book of Psalms: “Zeal for your house has consumed me.” In John’s gospel, Jesus’s cleansing of the temple is at the beginning of the gospel instead of the end. In the gospel, Jesus purifies the temple. How does your family and faith community maintain a sacred worship space for the people of God to worship?

Universal Prayer . . . For all families, that in their daily lives, they may find moments of solitude and silence to dwell with the Lord in prayer. . . Let us pray to the Lord.

THIRD WEEK OF LENT

SUSTAINABILITY IN EL SALVADOR

Drought has become a big problem across El Salvador, making it difficult for farmers to produce enough crops to support their families. But new farming techniques—and a new generation of young farmers—are making a difference. What would you do if your livelihood was threatened? How can you support young people in your community and around the world? Visit crsricebowl.org to learn more.

March 10-18, 2021

The USCCB has composed a novena to be prayed yearly on March 10-18, the nine days that precede the Solemnity of Saint Joseph on March 19. Each day of the novena will be accompanied by a reflection video from the bishops of the Committee on Divine Worship ... go to usccb.org.
