On this Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time we hear in the Gospel for this weekend the cry of the afflicted for mercy (Jesus, Master, have pity on us) and their cry is heard! The 10 lepers put faith in the Lord's instruction and find healing along the way. But only one expresses thankfulness and more. Jesus came to bring mercy and healing not just some but to all. In our need do we call upon Lord? How do we make the mercy of God available to others? Let us pray..

*May your grace, O Lord, we pray, at all times go before us and follow after and make us always determined to carry out good works.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit
one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.*

Collect, 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Roman Missal, 3rd Edition

Family Perspectives

Only one leper returned to thank Jesus for being cured. Sounds a lot like our families. We routinely do so much for each other that it is easy to forget to say thanks. Like Jesus, don't wait for thanks to care and give. And be like the rare one in ten who expresses gratitude.

General Intercessions

In gratitude to the parents, grandparents, childcare providers and teachers who give so much of themselves to the children of our community. Give them wisdom in their teaching and the strength to be positive role models. Let us pray to the Lord.

Catholics Care. Catholics Vote.

The Catholic bishops of the United States are pleased to offer once again Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, our teaching document on the political responsibility of Catholics. This statement represents our guidance for Catholics in the exercise of their rights and duties as participants in our democracy. Please read the document at www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/faithful-citizenship/index.cfm.

"We need to participate for the common good. Sometimes we hear: a good Catholic is not interested in politics. This is not true: good Catholics immerse themselves in politics by offering the best of themselves so that the leader can govern." ~ Pope Francis, 9/16/13
