On this Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time we should consider the virtue of humility... a true knowledge of about ourselves. To be humble to is be honest about our strengths and what we find challenging...where we are weak, even where we fail. True knowledge of self is an awareness of what we can accomplish, where success has occurred, and where growth needs to take place. Let us pray..

*God of might, giver of every good gift,
put into our hearts the love of Your name,
so that, by deepening our sense of reverence,
and, by Your watchful care,
keep safe what You have nurtured.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.*

Family Perspectives

"Those who humble themselves will be exalted." Family life confirms the words of Jesus in today's gospel. Commitment, intimacy, loyalty, and love are the rewards of humble service and care for one another. Pope Francis reminds us, "no family drops down from heaven perfectly formed." The Joy of Love #325

Faith & Value Appeal for Education

*Catholic Schools are communities of faith, knowledge and service. Academic success and rigorous achievement mark our schools as outstanding institutions. Essential to the Christian message is the command of Christ to serve others. Our students are at their best when they exemplify in their actions this command, and they do so daily. Students, their parents, grandparents and other family members sacrifice to provide a Catholic education and are grateful for tuition assistance provided through the Faith & Value Appeal for Education. Please pray for the continued support of this appeal. To donate online, visit www.CatholicCommunity.org/eddonate or call Karen Joyce at 800-869-6525 x1910.
