Read and pray the Scriptures daily!

From the Pastor's Desk

This Third Sunday of Easter we remember that Jesus is our intercessor, the offering for our sins and those of the whole world. Jesus is our peace. With the apostles, let us affirm our belief in the Risen Lord...truly pray we put trust in Jesus. With Peter and the apostles we have become witnesses to Jesus's mercy and forgiveness. Let us pray...

*May your people exult for ever, O God,
in renewed youthfulness of spirit,
so that, rejoicing now
in the restored glory of our adoption, we may look forward in confident hope to the rejoicing of the day of resurrection.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.*

Collect, Third Sunday of Easter, Roman Missal, 3rd Edition

In your Charity

Please pray for Darlene O' Sullivan (Patrick), Barbara Morehouse, grandmother of parishioner Marie Morehouse, and Cyril Kuhel, brother of parishioner Theresa Marchetti. May Darlene, Barbara, Cyril and all who have gone before us in faith live forever in the joy of the Resurrection. May their families and friends be consoled. Amen.

Family Perspectives

Today's gospel depicts the disciples as "terrified, disbelieving and wondering." Yet Jesus stood among them and said: "Peace be with you." What was he thinking? Terror and peace just don't go together, do they? Yes – in the life of faith. No matter how difficult or messy the situation may be the Risen Lord will be with us offering peace and quieting our fears.

General Intercessions

For parents and spouses, that they will learn to be agents of forgiveness in their family, so that the peace of Christ will be present in their home, we pray to the Lord.
Lord hear our prayer.

There's Hope

Many in our region are struggling with the pain and devastation caused by the heroin epidemic. As you've read in the paper and on the internet, and seen on the news, it's a painful struggle that is gripping our region and our state. There is always hope and there are pathways to find help. If you, or someone you know, is struggling with addiction or needs help in supporting a family member, go to www.GreaterthanHeroin.com. It's a website prepared by civic and faith leaders across our region to help show the way to hope and recovery.
