From the Pastor's Desk

On this Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time we are asked to use our talents, all that God gives us to the best of our abilities. To be the best we can be as the way of giving honor and thanks to God. What ever we have been given by God is what we are to use. Whether we have much or little is not important. What is important is to remember we are children of light, ever ready for the coming of the Lord. We count our blessings and use responsibly what we have, seeking in all things do God's will. Let us pray...

*Grant us, we pray, O Lord our God, the constant gladness of being devoted to you,
for it is full and lasting happiness to serve with constancy
the author of all that is good.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen*

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities.”

- Matthew 25:21

General Intercession

That God will open our eyes to see the gift we are to one another and give us the energy to invest ourselves deeply and selflessly in the lives of those near and dear to us.

Let us pray to the Lord.

Family Perspective

The servant in the gospel was afraid to invest the money given to him. In our families, if we fail to invest ourselves in each other we will end up just like the servant--a loser! Without personal investment in a relationship, there are no dividends, no growth and ultimately no relationship.

Thanksgiving Day Prayer

Father all powerful, your gifts of love are countless and your goodness infinite;
as we come before you on

Thanksgiving Day
with gratitude for your kindness, open our hearts to have concern for every man, women, and child,

so that we may share your gifts in loving service.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever.

Amen.

Collect for Thanksgiving Day, Roman Missal, 3rd Edition

St. Michael, the Archangel defend us in battle, be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen
