From the Pastor's Desk

On this Tenth Sunday In Ordinary Time, we are reminded by this weekend's Gospel reading that doing God's will demonstrates that we belong to God as family. Let us remember to be open to the help of the Holy Spirit and pray...

O God, from whom all good things come,
grant that we, who call on you in our need,
may at your prompting discern what is right,
and by your guidance do it.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

Collect, Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Roman Missal, 3rd Edition

There's Hope

Many in our region are struggling with the pain and devastation caused by the heroin epidemic. As you've read in the paper and on the internet, and seen on the news, it's a painful struggle that is gripping our region and our state. There is always hope and there are pathways to find help. If you, or someone you know, is struggling with addiction or needs help in supporting a family member, go to www.GreaterthanHeroin.com. It's a website prepared by civic and faith leaders across our region to help show the way to hope and recovery.

HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Predators are at work throughout the year – summer is no exception. Learn more about human trafficking/modern day slavery so that you can be more alert to trafficking situations.

Family Perspectives

Family relationships have primary importance in our lives. Jesus, however, reminds us of a higher priority than family for each of us; the will of God. In today's Gospel he even says "for whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother." According to Mark's Gospel, Jesus had to overcome some of his own earthly family's resistance to his calling. What about us? Are our families open to God's will for each member, or must we, too, overcome family resistance?

Protecting God's Children

To report any past or present suspected inappropriate behavior toward children by priests, deacons, religious, lay ecclesial ministers or personnel associated with the Church, please contact the Diocesan Response Service Office at 216-334-2999 or via email response_services@dioceseofcleveland.org. You are also asked to immediately inform local authorities about inappropriate behavior.

Faith at work at the Ozanam Center

"What does it profit, my brethren, if a man says he has faith but has not works? Can his faith save him? If a brother or sister is poorly clothed and in lack of daily food, and one of you says to them, "Go in peace, be warmed and filled," without giving them the things need for the body, what does it profit? So faith by itself, if it has not works, is dead." James 2: 14-17. We don't preach to the people who need help at the Ozanam Center but we do help provide for their need of food and clothing. You can help us do that June 23, 2018, since that is our next turn. Hope to see you there at 9:00-12:00. Call Cathie or Jim at 330-467-5762 for further questions.
