General Intercession

For a more mutual and generous love between husbands and wives in our homes, parishes and communities, we pray to the Lord.

Family Perspective

Today's second reading from Ephesians makes today "nudge Sunday." Husbands nudge their wives when they hear "wives should be subordinate to their husbands." Wives return the nudge at the words "husbands love your wives as Christ loves the Church." The key to this reading is the first line: "be subordinate to one another out of reverence for Christ." When love is mutual and generously shared between husband and wife – marriage goes to a whole new wonderful level!

Read and pray the Scriptures daily!

From the Pastor's Desk

On this Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time we hear how Joshua gathered the tribes of Israel at Shechem, and challenged them to commit themselves to serving only the Lord. In this Sunday's second reading we hear of the challenge and commitment of marriage. In the Gospel today, as we are challenged to affirm our commitment to the Lord Jesus, the Bread of Life, so with Saint Peter let us say, "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life." (John 6:68-69) Let us pray...

O God, who cause the minds of the faithful to unite in a single purpose, grant your people to love what you command
and to desire what you promise, that, amid the uncertainties of this world,
our hearts may be fixed on that place where true gladness is found.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

Prayer for Vocations

Lord of the harvest, your Word finds a home in our hearts, calls us into community and invites us to generous service of the human family. Bless with courage and spirit priestly people, called to full participation in the one Body of Christ. May many choose to respond in public service to your call offered in Jesus' name. Amen.
