From the Pastor's Desk

On this Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time as we listen to the readings for this weekend Liturgy we are reminded that marriage from the beginning of creation is from God where a man and woman become one. In the Sacrament of Marriage the couple are made one in Christ. We must honor, love, respect and support but not separate what God has joined. Marriage is more than legal agreement. It is dynamic sign of God's loving presence of giving and forgiving. May we pray and bless all the married in their vocation to be one and a sign of God's love and life in our midst. Let us pray...

*Almighty ever-living God, who in the abundance of your kindness surpass the merits and the desires of those who entreat you, pour out your mercy upon us
to pardon what conscience dreads
and to give what prayer does not dare to ask.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

Roman Missal, 3rd Edition*

October Month of the Rosary
Plan on coming earlier before Mass to join in praying the rosary together.

Pope's Universal Intention for October:

The Mission of Religious. That consecrated religious men and women may bestir themselves, and be present amongst the poor, the marginalized, and those who have no voice.

General Intercession

That the Holy Spirit inspire and guide Pope Francis and the Bishops gathered for the Young People, the Faith and Vocational Discernment Synod in Rome during the month of October, let us pray to the Lord.

Family Perspective

Today's readings focus on marriage and divorce. In The Joy of Love, Pope Francis calls the Church to both promote marriage and be more compassionate to divorced persons. Pray and encourage engaged, married and divorced persons you know.

Visit www.foryourmarriage.org for news, practical skills and Catholic theology on marriage and family.

Blessing of Animals

This weekend after all the Masses we will have the blessings of animals in front of the church.

AM1260 The Rock, Cleveland's Catholic Radio station, is an EWTN affiliate that provides quality Catholic programming that is faithful to the teachings of the Church and presented in a way that inspires conversion of heart and a deepening of faith while building up the local Body of Christ. We welcome Bernadette Boguski, from the station, who is speaking this weekend at all the Masses. Tune into AM1260 The Rock, or visit www.am1260therock to learn more.

Lord of the harvest, your Word finds a home in our hearts, calls us into community and invites us to generous service of the human family. Bless with courage and spirit priestly people, called to full participation in the one Body of Christ. May many choose to respond in public service to your call offered in Jesus's name. Amen.
