

From the Pastor's Desk

Easter Blessings continue for all with the apostles experiencing peace as they encounter the Risen Lord. With Thomas the apostle, called Didymus, we are called to make our acclamation of faith...My Lord and my God. Let us pray...

*God of everlasting mercy,
who in the recurrence of the paschal feast kindle the faith of the people
you have made your own,
increase, we pray the grace you have bestowed,
that all may grasp and rightly understand
in what font they have been washed,
by whose Spirit they have been reborn,
by whose Blood they have been redeemed.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.*

Amen.

and a sign of hope for this continent.*

Today, Divine Mercy Sunday,
We will be changing our Communion Rite posture to reflect the original policy, first established in 2003. We will remain standing after the Lamb of God, throughout the singing of the Communion Hymn, until the end of the distribution of Holy Communion. Once the last person has received Holy Communion and the Communion Hymn ends, we may kneel or sit for private prayer.

General Intercession

For parents who will authentically model forgiveness and mercy in families, we pray to the Lord.

Family Perspective

“As the Father has sent Me, so I send you!” As Jesus gives witness to God’s love and forgiveness, each of us is called to live this same mission. Parents and spouses have the opportunity to give witness to the faithful love of God for each other. They do this in the ways they hold each other accountable to live the Gospel and in the times they mercifully forgive and reconcile.

Catholic Home Missions Appeal

Support the Catholic Home Missions Appeal today! Right now over 40% of dioceses in the United States are considered mission territory because they are unable to fund essential pastoral work in their communities. Your donations support programs, such as religious education, seminary formation, and lay ministry training, to build vibrant faith communities right here in the United States. Blessings for generosity!
