In the Gospel reading for this Fourth Sunday of Lent, Jesus heals the man born blind. The blind man is brought from darkness into light. So it is with all those born again in Baptism. Born from above by water and the Holy Spirit, the baptized are freed from the darkness of sin and death. As we journey towards Easter with those to be baptized, with them may our Lenten journey free us from whatever we fail to see in ourselves as needing forgiveness and healing. Let us pray..

O God, who through your Word reconcile the human race to yourself in a wonderful way, grant, we pray, that with prompt devotion and eager faith the Christian people may hasten toward the solemn celebrations to come. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Collect, Fourth Sunday of Lent, Roman Missal, 3rd Edition

Beginning Divine Mercy Sunday, we will be changing our Communion Rite posture to reflect the original policy, first established in 2003. We will remain standing after the Lamb of God, throughout the singing of the Communion Hymn, until the end of the distribution of Holy Communion. Once the last person has received Holy Communion and the Communion Hymn ends, we may kneel or sit for private prayer. More information, including documentation, may be found on the Office for Worship website, www.dioceseofcleveland.org/worship.

Experience God's Mercy
 Come and encounter the experience God's loving mercy in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. As our Holy Father, Pope Francis has reminded us, "God never tires of forgiving us." As prepare for Easter there will be Confessions on Saturday, April 13, at 11:30am and a Penance Service on Monday, April 15 at 7:00pm. Confession time is also scheduled at 4:00pm on Saturdays.

General Intercession
That individuals or children blinded by pain or resentment following divorce may seek the Lord and find help and healing for their pain and anger.
Let us pray to the Lord.

Family Perspective
 In the gospel today, Jesus cures a man born blind, using mud and dirt as a sign of His healing. Even the most ordinary things in our family can be sources of healing and signs of God's presence if we open our eyes and use them for the sake of others.

Please pray for...
