On this Third Sunday in Lent Jesus meets the woman at the well in Samaria. He is thirsty. Jesus is really thirsting for her to respond to His loving mercy. She represents all who are willing to receive forgiveness and new life from the well springs of Christ's love. With those to be baptized at Easter in the waters of Baptism, may we too discern what we need to change in our life. Let us pray...

O God, author of every mercy and of all goodness, who in fasting, prayer and almsgiving have shown us a remedy for sin, look graciously on this confession of our lowliness, that we, who are bowed down by our conscience, may always be lifted up by your mercy. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Collect, Third Sunday of Lent, Roman Missal, 3rd Edition

Catholic Relief Services

Next weekend, our parish will take up The Catholic Relief Services Collection (CRSC). Funds from this collection help provide food to the hungry, support to displaced refugees, and Christ's love and respect to all people here at home and abroad. Please give generously to the CRSC and help Jesus in disguise. Learn more about the collection at www.usccb.org/catholic-relief.

General Intercession

That families will make the time for the Sacrament of Reconciliation.
Let us pray to the Lord.

Family Perspective

In this third week of Lent, the gospel challenges us to repent. What are you clinging to that is actually destroying you? It could be anger that is eating you up; a jealousy that hardens your heart; or a false pride that blinds you to the goodness of others. These things can destroy us and the relationships that we value. Let us see repentance in a positive light as an opportunity to be embraced by Jesus' great mercy that will set us free.

Experience God's Mercy

Come and encounter the experience God's loving mercy in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. As our Holy Father, Pope Francis has reminded us, "God never tires of forgiving us." This is an excellent Lenten practice as we prepare for Easter. There will be Confessions on Saturdays: March 30, April 6, April 13 at 11:30am and a Penance Service on Monday, April 15 at 7:00pm. Confession time is also scheduled at 4:00pm on Saturdays or any time by appointment.
