On this Ascension Sunday we see the Lord commission the disciples to go and proclaim the Gospel. Those who believe and are baptized will be saved. We believe and have been baptized. Not only do we have the promise of salvation. Like the apostles we have been commissioned to bring the Good News of the Risen Lord to our time. Keep this in mind as you go forth from Mass this weekend. Each day this week ask yourself how you will fulfill your commission to spread the Gospel until we share in the glory of the Lord. Let us pray...

*Gladden us with holy joys, almighty God,
and make us rejoice with devout thanksgiving,
for the Ascension of Christ your Son is our exaltation,
and where the Head has gone before in glory,
the Body is called to follow in hope.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.*

Collect, Ascension Sunday of Easter, Roman Missal, 3rd Edition

Holy Father's Intention for June
The Mode of Life for Priests
That priests, through the modesty
and humility of their lives, actively commit themselves actively to those who are most poor.

General Intercession
For families who grieve the loss of a child.
May they know the tender mercy and consolation of God.
We pray to the Lord.

Family Perspective
The great mercy of Jesus is revealed in today's account of his bringing back to life the deceased only son of a widow from the city of Nain. Pope Francis proclaims "Jesus is a paradigm for the Church." Throughout the Gospels he shares in the important moments of family life and always shows mercy. May our families and parishes be rich in mercy like Jesus.
