General Intercession

For engaged couples who will soon marry, that the Holy Spirit will increase their love for one another and that their marriages will be a powerful witness of the love of God for each of us.

We pray to the Lord.

Family Perspective

In today's Gospel, Jesus admonishes, "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God." Clearly, Jesus does not want families to be mired in mourning, resentment, worry or loyalties that cause them to lose hope and direction. The key is to seek God first and let all other cares be secondary. Then, we will find direction and energy to fulfill our responsibilities and journey through life with joy no matter what difficulties face us.

From the Pastor's Desk

On this Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time let us reflect on being children of light. What guides our hearts is the light of truth. It is ever bright. It is Jesus. The Word made Incarnate. Read and pray the Gospel. What is Jesus teaching us this week? How are we asked to be His apostle in our day? Let us pray...

*O God, who through the grace of adoption chose us to be children of light, grant, we pray, that we may not be wrapped in the darkness of error but always be seen to stand in the bright light of truth.
 Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.*

Amen.

Collect, Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Roman Missal, 3rd Edition
