

From the Pastor's Desk

On this Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time we reflect on the invitation to the banquet of Heaven. Already as baptized we have received the wedding garment proper for the Wedding Feast of the Kingdom. We are among the invited guests. Yet there needs to be further preparation and are we truly in process? What are your priorities in life? Are they reflective of a person Heaven bound? Do they include daily prayer, the Sacraments, Mass, acts of charity? How is Jesus the center of your life? What is this parable saying to you at this time in your life? Let us pray...

*May your grace, O Lord, we pray, at all times go before us and follow after and make us always determined to carry out good works.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity
of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.*

Blanket Sunday "Covers" Many Needs

This weekend, October 10-11, is Blanket Sunday, sponsored by Diocesan St. Vincent de Paul Society. Due to lack of storage space, we will gratefully accept your donation and do the shopping for you, making your money go even further with bulk purchases of blankets and other items needed by the homeless and disadvantaged. So "blanket" someone for the winter – and give yourself a warm feeling! You may also visit <http://www.svdpcle.org> to donate online.

October, Month of the Rosary

Plan on coming twenty minutes before Mass to join together in praying the Rosary.

General Intercession

For pregnant mothers, that these months of expectation will be a time of joy, health and preparation for the serious role of parenting. Let us pray to the Lord.

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“The servants went out into the streets and gathered all they found, bad and good alike, and the hall was filled with guests”
—Matthew 22:10

Family Perspective

The king in today’s gospel sent wedding invitations to all his close friends...people like himself. But the party wasn’t successful until he opened the doors to everyone...to people not like himself. The Christian family opens its heart and doors to everyone because we know that joy happens through sharing with others beyond our own family. Charity begins and extends beyond home and truly sets an inclusive spirit.

Pope’s Intention for October
The Laity’s Mission in the Church
*That by virtue of baptism, especially women, may participate more in areas
of responsibilities in the Church.*
Amen.

Protecting God’s Children

The Diocese of Cleveland’s “protecting God’s Children” program is a continuing effort to instruct and inform everyone about the protection of children from sexual abuse. To report any past or present suspected inappropriate behavior toward children by priests, deacons, religious, lay ecclesial ministers or personnel associated with the Church, please contact the Diocesan Response Service Office at 216-334-2999 or via email at response_services@dioceseofcleveland.org. You are also asked to immediately inform local authorities about inappropriate behavior.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though You have already come, I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You; never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

On YouTube ... Television ... Cable TV

We are not alone ... the Lord is with us!

World Mission Sunday, our annual worldwide Eucharistic celebration for the Missions and missionaries of the world, will be celebrated on October 17-18 this year. This collection on the next-to-last Sunday in October is a unique, global effort for the entire Church to provide for the building up of over one thousand local churches in Asia and Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe. Through the work of these churches, and their witness to Christ, the poor receive practical help and experience God's love and mercy, His hope and peace.
